

LIMEHOUSE

The Limehouse Group Committee held its first euchre party Friday night with six active tables. Audrey Wilson won the prize for ladies high score, Frank Holtman the mens high score, and the lone hand prize was given to Clifford McDonald. Lunch ended an enjoyable evening.

Cub Apple Day was held Saturday in Limehouse. Seventeen Cubs sold apples from the 4th Line to the 7th Line. They would like to thank all the local residents for their support.

Friday night at a banquet held by the Halton Rural Minor Softball League, the Limehouse Atom ball team was presented with a trophy for finishing first at the end of the scheduled season. This is the first time a Limehouse ball team has won a trophy in some time.

Some 45 students under the care of Mrs. Glenda Benton and Mrs. Jane Hasselfeldt enjoyed a field trip on the Bruce Peninsula on Friday, Oct. 19. Bert Benton provided transportation for the group back to Limehouse School.

A. C. Patterson is recuperating from eye surgery at St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph.

Campbell Sinclair was hospitalized in Georgetown with a serious stomach ailment. Best wishes for a speedy recover to both of them.

Services at Limehouse Presbyterian Church will begin again at 9:45 a.m. next Sunday with Sunday school to follow. At 8 p.m. the WMS expects Rev. and Mrs. Len Keighley, on furlough from Japan, to be with them. Mrs. Keighley is the former Isabel Stephenson whose father was United Church minister in Limehouse. A former music teacher in Limehouse, Mrs. Mollie Heaner, formerly Mollie Hepburn, will be present to sing.

The fourth meeting of the Limehouse Pussy Pillows 4H club was held at the home of leader Mrs. Anderson. Plans were made for the forthcoming Achievement Day. Work was done on bedspreads, with emphasis on mitered corners and Italian hem stitching.

Wendy Hannah, a local young lady, accompanied the St. Andrew's United Church choir on guitar for "He Has The Whole World" in Georgetown recently.
