

LIMEHOUSE

The cubs had two interesting meetings recently. District Commissioner Gord Douglas brought his many slides on nature to show them. These consisted of flowers, birds, butterflies, etc. and were very much enjoyed by the boys. The other meeting was a costume party. It was a fun night with games, songs and even a ghost story. Don Casselman and Dwayne Maltby won prizes for their costumes. Treats were given to the boys at the end of the meeting. Thanks to Mrs. Somers for the apples and cookies she sent.

The 1st Limehouse Group Committee held its November meeting at the home of Lorna and Steve Thompson in Acton. Nine people were present. Plans were made for the upcoming year on Nov. 16 and the sale Nov. 24. It is hoped these special projects will help to winterize the Scout Hut. It was announced the sale of Scout calendars had been a success with only 25 more to sell. Top salesmen from the Group Committee are Lorna Thompson, Sherry Eastwood and David Hannah, and from the cubs, Danny Morrison. The Group Committee will not be picking up any more papers from the area until new outlets are found.

ARRIVAL
Mr. and Mrs. John Forster of Newcastle, England arrived on Friday to make their home in Canada with their son Brian Forster, his wife, and two sons.

Congratulations to Miss Donna Moore and George Koeslag, who were married in the Georgetown Christian Reformed Church on Saturday.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lefterink who celebrated their silver wedding anniversary with open house at their home on Sunday.

The WI met at the home of Mrs. A. W. Benton on Thursday evening. President Mrs. F. Brown opened by reading "If You Walk As A Friend" and "The Maple Leaf" was sung. Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Anderson reported on the recent convention at Kitchener where they were delegates. Mrs. Brown had tapes of some speeches and program. One interesting speech was by a lady of German parentage, born in Russia, where she was taught to be an aesthet, but later became very religious following her escape.

Statistics reported 17,000 4-H girls with 5,000 leaders working under 36 home economists in Ontario.

A quilt with comic hats, a quilt display, Ashgrove's display of sewing with knits and the winning pictures and wall hangings were seen. The delegates said it was a very interesting convention with splendid accommodation.

Items were hard from committee convenors. Mrs. Brown reviewed District Day at Master Feeds hall where Mrs. V. Johnson spoke on Indian Affairs and Crafts.

Program convenor, Mrs. G. Booth commented on the arrangements for the wedding of Princess Anne and Capt. Mark Phillips. She also spoke on your own growing up, no matter how tall your ancestors were, saying our early life is usually taken for granted. We have traits of our ancestors, but should take growing up more seriously. She ended by telling us that not a life but a good life is to be valued.

There was considerable discussion regarding use of the hall and plans for the Christmas meeting at Mrs. Booth's. 'O Canada' closed the meeting and the president extended courtesies. The hostess served refreshments afterwards.

Congratulations to Susan Gaskill and Brian Bodin, who were married in Holy Cross, Georgetown on Friday. They will live in Georgetown.

Guests from a distance at the Bodin-Gaskill wedding include Mrs. Gaskill's sisters, Mrs. Andrade of Los Angeles, California and Mrs. Honnilla of New Mexico and her father, Mr. Darry of Liverpool, England, whom the Gaskill's brought back with them when they visited there in August.
