MR. AND MRS. ALLAN McEWEN Guelph United Church Setting For Wedding

Marilyn Emerson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Emerson, 84 Sargent Rd., became the bride of Allan Douglas McEwen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert McEwen, Guelph, in a double-ring ceremony performed at Dublin Street United Church, Guelph, Ont. on October 13, 1973.

Rev. Russell Crossley officiated at the 4 p.m. ceremony. Baskets of yellow and bronze mums with yellow gladioli decorated the church. The bride's sister Glenda McKay was the soloist, who sang "O Perfect Love" and "We've Only Just Begun".

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length organza gown with flowing train, lace apron and bib. The dress had long full sleeves, deep cuffs and a stand up ruffle collar. Her headpiece, from England, was a white sapphire-studded lace Juliet cap with a shoulder length veil. She carried an autumn bouquet of orange roses, yellow mums, dainty sprigs of gypsophylla and wheat, trimmed with talisman ribbon.

Miss Nancy Snider, a good friend of the bride, was maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Debra McEwen, sister of the groom and Dianne Emerson, sister of the bride. Barbara Lynn Fiddy, cousin of the bride was junior bridesmaid and Heather Goring, cousin of the groom, was flower girl.

The attendants wore identical dresses of gingham pinafores over plain underdresses. The maid of honor in yellow, bridesmaids in green and brown. Junior bridesmaid in brown, and the flower girl in green. Each girl carried a basket of yellow daisies accented with sprigs of gypsophylla. The maid of honor carried a basket of bronze and yellow daisies, also accented with sprigs of gypsophylla.

John Morrison of Guelph, a good friend of the groom, was best man. Mac Ellis, friend of the groom, and Rupert Coffin, brother-in-law of the bride, were ushers. The male attendants and fathers of the bride and groom wore black tuxedos with white shirts.

For the reception held at the Georgetown Golf and Country Club, the mother of the bride received the guests wearing a floor length gown of tangerine matte jersey, accented by a corsage of yellow cymbidiums.

The mother of the groom greeted guests in a turquoise blue crimplene floor length gown, complimented with a corsage of bridal pink sweetheart roses.

For the honeymoon trip, the bride wore a brown, brightly flowered dress with brown suede coat, and corsage of autumn mums.

Mr. and Mrs. Allan McEwen are making their home in Burlington.

Women

Married Couple Off to Northwest

Louise Pettit, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jarvis Pettit of Ransomville, N. Y. and Peter Von Zuben, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Von Zuben of Terra Cotta, were married recently in Ransomville.

The bride's sister, Nancy Bowerman, was matron of honor and bridesmaids were cousins of the bride, Carol Pettit and Laura Westfall. Edward Von Zuben was groomsmen and Lawrence Boyes and Dan Pettit were ushers.

The couple returned to Terra

Cotta following the short honeymoon to prepare for their trip to the Northwest Territories where Mr. Von Zuben has spent the past three years working as an independent missionary to the Dogrib Indians at Fort Vermillion, Yellowknife, and Fort Rae.

Prior to their departure, Union Presbyterian Church and community friends gave a Bible, and Ontario plaque, and a sum of money to the bride and groom.

STEWARTTOWN

Mrs. Robert Harris and Mrs. Robert Webster were hostesses to members and friends of Esqueping Women's Institute at their regular November meeting, held in the community hall last Thursday evening.

The motto "A man of words and not of deeds is like a garden full of weeds."

The roll call bring a friend or neighbor.

The regular donation was made to the poppy fund.

Mrs. Ward Miller was welcomed as a new member. Plans were made to assist with food preparation for the Atkinson wedding early in December.

An invitation was extended to the members to attend a shower in honour of Miss Roslyn Atkinson to be held Nov. 28 at the home of Nick and Ruth Ferraro in Stewarttown.

Lunch was served by the hostesses.

WELCOME

On behalf of the community we welcome Mr. and Mrs. Ward Miller and their two young sons from Montreal. They have purchased a house, previously owned by Mr. and Mrs. Tony Marshall.

Sincere sympathy of the community is extended to Mrs. Matt Hilson and family, in the sudden death of Mr. Hilson at their home on the Check Line on Wednesday, Nov. 7. The funeral service from McKersie Funeral Home in Milton was held on Friday with interment in Evergreen Cemetery, Milton.

Also we extend sympathy to Mrs. Elmer Smith of Acton whose husband died suddenly on Thursday. Many of the students in this area attended Speyside Public school where Mrs. Smith was a member of the teaching staff.

Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Eddie McLean of Norval, whose husband died suddenly last Friday. Mrs. McLean is well known to most of us through her Norval News Column in the Herald.

CHURCH SERVICE

The Right Rev. John Bothwell, Bishop of Niagara Diocese, conducted confirmation service at St. John's Church on Sunday morning.

Candidates presented to the Bishop by Rev. Canon Maxwell were: Alice Armstrong, Wendy, Beverley and Donald Bradley, Sandra Chamberlain, Heather Clarke, Laurie Crow, Megan Mills, Alan and Michael Vernon and Debbie Wilson.

Flowers on the altar were in loving memory of Michael Mills R.C. N.V.R. killed in action Nov. 11, 1941.
