

JUNIOR CURLING has caught on and close to 100 young people turned out recently, at North Halton Golf and Country Club, in Georgetown, to receive an introduction to the roaring game. Here, veteran curler Gord Partridge gives a lesson to Craig Teeter, Kevin Reed and Jeffrey Moulden.

TAKING HIS cue from the skip's broom, Bruce Wenham prepares to deliver a stone. The young curlers took to the game with great interest, and no one seemed to mind the heavy stones.

Oakville Nips Novice Squad

Tuesday, Nov. 13, at the Georgetown arena, Bob Cooper's young novice team met with Oakville in an exhibition game. As the scoring indicates, this was a good spectators game to watch as the first two periods went scoreless.
 Oakville was the first to start the action at the two-minute mark of the third period with Georgetown getting the tying goal at 5:05 with Jeff Moore being the marksman and Howie Oram and Greg Robertson getting the assists. Oakville got the go ahead goal at 12:05 which was closely followed by an insurance goal at 12:35, giving them a 3 to 1 win.
 Despite the loss, Maurice David played a strong game up front. Previous to this, Oakville had beaten the same team 6-1 and coach Bob Cooper is very pleased with the improvement of the playing of his team in the few games they have had.
 No date for the novice next game is scheduled.
