

Show Is Readied By Little Theatre

Rehearsals are coming well says Sue Dunning, director of Jack and the Giant which Georgetown Little Theatre will present next week at Wrigglesworth School in Georgetown.

The play features Simon Joyne in the lead role as Jack, Vera MacDonald as his mother, and John Horning as the old man who sells Jack the beans.

The cast also includes Carol Joynes, Mark Joynes, Karen Friskney, Nicola Joynes, Tom Van Alphen, John Lupton, and Des Nicholls. Director Dunning will try her hand at acting, along with Christine Robinson, as they portray Driscilla the cow.

The production of the play is being handled by Harry Haylock, Karen Friskney, Mia Van Alphen, and others.

"We're looking forward to a very successful play," director Dunning said. Group performances will be held Dec. 5 and 6 at 7:30 p.m. and Dec. 8 at 1:30, 3:30 and 8 p.m. Open performances will be held Dec. 7 at 7:30 p.m., Dec. 8 at 7 p.m., and Dec. 9 at 1:30 p.m. Tickets for the public performances will be available at the door.

New Zealand Trip Related

Forty-eight members of Acton Golden Age Club enjoyed an armchair visit to New Zealand, courtesy of Mrs. K. Algar, who showed pictures and provided the commentary of a trip she had taken.

This was an enlightening film, showing many of the harbours, mountains, homes and flowers, giving all a better insight to this island.

Ivan Harris expressed thanks to Mrs. Algar for sharing this trip. Two minutes of silence were observed in memory of Cameron Agnew, who died during the weekend.

A detailed report of the recent zone rally held in Georgetown was given by Mrs. David Robertson.

Mention was made of the pot luck supper on Dec. 19 when a gift exchange will be held. Cake and ice cream was served courtesy of Mr. Garnet McKenzie.

MR. AND MRS. LAWRENCE MAY

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence May celebrated their golden wedding anniversary on Saturday, November 24 with an open house at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bob May, and a family dinner at the home of their eldest son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jack May. The couple, with their sons Jack and Bob, started a farm at RR 2 Norval several years ago and have just recently retired from the business. They were married in Streetsville Methodist Church.

NORVAL NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence May of RR 2, Norval, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary on Saturday, November 24, with an open house in the afternoon and evening held at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bob May, and a family dinner at the home of their eldest son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jack May with 55 guests attending the dinner. They also have a daughter, Leona (Mrs. Don Ferguson of Port Credit), nine grandchildren and one great grandchild, all of whom helped them celebrate the happy occasion. Mr. and Mrs. May were married 50 years ago in the Methodist Church in Streetsville. Many friends and relatives called during the afternoon and evening to wish them well.

Pouring tea during the afternoon and evening were Mrs. Murray Laird, Mrs. Jim May, Mrs. Maurice Williamson, Mrs. Frank Thompson, Mrs. Norman Cook, Mrs. Clayton May, Mrs. John Hamilton, and Mrs. Walter Ridley. Mr. and Mrs. May along with their sons Jack and Bob started the Maple Lodge Farms business several years ago and it has progressed and grown over the years. Mr. and Mrs. May have recently retired from the family business.

School pupils and members of the Junior Choir, The Y.P.S. with Terry Laidlaw, Bonnie Crawford, and Christine Pomeroy in charge had a candy and popcorn booth, also a lucky draw on a jar of jelly beans which was won by Mrs. Davidson of Brampton.

There was also a lucky draw on the tea room tickets of a ceramic vase donated by Mrs. Grobe but the name of the winner was not known at press time.

Unit One of Norval United Church UCW met at the home of Mrs. Murray Laird on Thursday afternoon, November 15th, with Mrs. Laird presiding and 14 members present. A nominating committee of Mrs. Spencer Wilson and Mrs. Guy Wilson was appointed. Mrs. Dan Wey gave the devotional and the topic for the afternoon was given by Mrs. Marion Reed on the first and second chapters of Genesis. She was so very interesting that the members wished that she could continue on with the other chapters.

Mrs. S. Shaw and Mrs. Guy Wilson were assistant hostesses and lunch was enjoyed. The next meeting will be the Christmas pot-luck luncheon at the home of Mrs. James Laidlaw on Thursday, December 13th.

An evening of euchre was enjoyed followed by lunch and a social hour.

Norval United Church Couple's Club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ron Moffatt on Thursday evening, November 22 with Lloyd Laidlaw as chairman. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Laidlaw, Mr. and Mrs. Ron Moffatt, and Mrs. Gordon Laidlaw were the committee in charge of the evening.

During the business session, a trip to Greenway race track was planned for December and the annual New Year's Eve party was discussed. It was decided to give a donation to the Gamble family of Huttonville following its tragic fire.

A euchre party was enjoyed with Mrs. Gwen Laidlaw and Paul Johnson high point winners and Mrs. Glenn Laidlaw and Albert Enman the low prize winners. Lunch and a social time ended the evening.
