Smiles a lot
 this fella...

And No Wonder

We'll be happy to tell you what all the smiling is about.
 He buys his own ball gloves, skates, fishing rod, skis and all the other "necessities" that youngsters hold so dear.
 He has complete financial independence.
 He doesn't rely on Mom or Dad for his mallee money, banks his allowance (and a good portion of the money he earns as a Herald carrier boy, and when it comes to college time, he can give his parents a hand with tuition fees (even if they don't need it).
 He's a confident young man gaining experience in dealing with the public, slowly but surely learning the intricacies of managing his own business and secure in the knowledge that comes with watching his bank account grow.
 He's dependable (the folks along his route will vouch for that).
 And he's a nice boy (we'll vouch for that).
 Drop into our circulation department today, ask about your own route...
