Mason Motors?
 Cable TV 2
 The Motors group over the TV crew, building a 4-0 lead after two periods. D. Parker scored a hat trick. A. Reid got a pair with Roy McMahon and Dan Field adding singles. John McKee assisted on three. Dan Field, M. Spitzer and J. Phillips on one each. Pete McParlane from Rick Weatherall and Paul Parterson, then Hickey from Claire Stuart replied for Cable TV.

Hamco Excavating & Lane's Transport
 Steve Waldrum posted a shutout for the winners in their romp over the Transport crew. Scott McLaughlin, Scott Beckell, Mark Reimosen, Ken Flynn, Steve Alworth and Dave Patterson were the goal getters with assist going to Allworth (2), Sam Walt, Tom Davies, Patterson, Beckell and Wayne Osborne.

Burns Transport II
 The Transport crew took the money boys, led by the shooting of Daryl Street with three goals and two assists. Ken Flindall potted two, Gary Nugent, Rick Beckey and Dan Field adding singles. Several goals prevented a larger score at the end of the second period.

The atoms went ahead in the third at 11:15. Rye Kennedy scoring from David Norton but the four towners tied it all up again at 3:26. Bradley Tyndall doing the honors. Jeff Waterworth stopped what appeared a sure goal as three of the opposition broke in on him. This turn of events seemed to spark the younger atoms in a determined drive. At 8:44, Kevin Frank combined with Mike Doucette and Bobby Morrow to chalk up the go

Bantams Lose 7-2

On Wed. Nov. 28, the Plan Electric Georgetown minor bantams travelled to Oakville to meet the Oak's Bantam Bells in a regular scheduled tri-county hockey game. The troubled bantams are having difficulty in getting their team together to work as a unit to produce their first win, as they went down in defeat 7-2, for their fourth loss in seven starts.

As was the story of the bantams last game, this game's loss had much to do with the fact that Georgetown occupied the penalty box too many times as they picked up seven minors to Oakville's four.

The Bell's started the scoring right from the first minute of play, scoring at 1:22. Just 37 seconds later, Georgetown started their march to the penalty box as Tim Turner was sent off and 38 seconds later Don Thompson followed. Having a two man advantage Oakville took over the game by scoring two quick goals at 4:58 and at 6:30. Another penalty to Georgetown, Scott Wakfer at 10:14 followed by another one to Tim Turner at 11:23 brought the first period to an end and a 3-0 lead for Oakville.

In the second, it was Oakville's turn to sit in the sin-bin as their goalie was served a minor penalty. Having the man advantage Scott Wakfer, on a pass from Steve Krackjich, put Georgetown on the score board at the five minute mark. Another Oakville penalty gave Georgetown a two man advantage and Mike Jobb on a pass from Blake Dixon at 8:47 closed the gap to a 3 to 2 game. At 12:54 of the second, Bob McCandless was called for tripping and Georgetown started off the third period short-handed. It took Oakville 1:12 minutes to go ahead 4-2 and then scored goal number five at 6:28. Oakville picked up two penalties in the third but Georgetown could not get a good threat going. Brian Pendergast took Georgetown's sixth penalty at 7:29 and Oakville scored their sixth goal. To finish the third, Mike Jobb took a penalty at 2:25 and Oakville put in number seven with 1:03 left. Bantam's next game will be Sunday, Dec. 9 when they will play host to Burlington at 3:15.

Atoms Drop 4-towners In Exhibition Tilt

Georgetown minor atoms engaged the four towners in an exhibition tilt in their practise hour on Thursday, November 29th, at the Georgetown arena.

The atoms came up with a splendid 4-2 win, displaying an excellent team play effort in moving the puck and a "just never say die" spirit. The four towners went ahead at 12:17 of the first period on a goal by Bob Davey. In the second stanza, the atoms pressing for an equalizer were finally rewarded at 12:26; Bobby Morrow clicking on a neat three way combination from Kevin Frank and Adrian Vuga.

Several goals prevented a larger score at the end of the second period.

The atoms went ahead in the third at 11:15. Rye Kennedy scoring from David Norton but the four towners tied it all up again at 3:26. Bradley Tyndall doing the honors. Jeff Waterworth stopped what appeared a sure goal as three of the opposition broke in on him. This turn of events seemed to spark the younger atoms in a determined drive. At 8:44, Kevin Frank combined with Mike Doucette and Bobby Morrow to chalk up the go

Midgets Win Over Burlington

On Thursday, Nov. 29th, the Georgetown Gage Stationery minor midgets played host to the Burlington Mary Miles Midgets and came up with a 2-1 victory. The midgets who started out the season with two shut-out losses against them, have developed as a strong skating unit and are now enjoying a three game winning streak.

Skating and passing right along with the burly Burlington team, Georgetown took no time in showing they wanted to continue on their winning ways and at 2:47 of the first period, Russell Gray, on a pass from Lewis Humphries, blinked the red light and took a 1-0 lead.

On a three man rush, Mike Cameron passed out from the corner to a scramble in front of the Burlington net and with the help of one of the opposition's defenceless, ever ready Terry Turner slapped in goal number two, at 8:56.

The two teams played a no scoring second period with goaler Ronnie Osborne making some nice saves. Burlington came out pressing in the third, down 2-0, and got the spoiler of Ron Osborne's shutout at the 3:47 mark of the period.

Coach Vaughn Thompson and manager Gord Monk will be taking the team to Milton on Monday, Dec. 10th for the next tri-county game. This will be a return match with Milton and our locals will be out to take this game as they went down in defeat in their first encounter 3-1. Game time is 8:00.
