LIMEHOUSE

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Danny Spear (nee: Beth Karn) on the arrival of a little daughter at hospital in Georgetown on Sunday morning, her mother's birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. A.C. Patterson visited Miss Winnifred Ivens, who is recuperating from removal of a cataract operation at Brantford, a week ago. The past Sunday they visited her sister, Mrs. Smith at Weston, her son-in-law Mr. Les Hutchinson, who is recovering from recent heart valve repair.

Work is progressing on the addition to our local school, with the foundation already built.

Services at Limehouse Presbyterian Church will commence at 9.30 a.m. for communion next Sunday.

This year marks our fifth year of cable casting in Georgetown on Cable 5. During this time our programming has increased to include more programmes of community interest.

With the Christmas season coming upon us you will probably see us out taping parts of the many Christmas specials planned for the holiday.

In order to prepare for these programmes we have temporarily cut back on our regular schedule and we would ask you to check Cable 5 for programme listings.

If you or your organization would like to take part in our Christmas programmes contact our production department at 877-5211.
