Bazaar Great Success

A very successful Christmas Bazaar was held at St. George's Anglican Church during the afternoon and evening of Friday, Nov. 23. The convenor, Mrs. Wm. Collier, vice president of the Anglican Church Women did a tremendous job of organizing the event.

All proceeds from the event are to go into St. George's Building Fund.

Members of the AGW had the following booths: sewing and knitting, Christmas decorations, novelties, home baking, kiddie's corner, tea and coffee stand, church calendars and Christmas cards, lucky draw and penny sale.

The winners of the lucky draw were: D. Downey, 34 Hale Drive, first prize; Tom Clark, 530 Guelph Street, second prize. Winners of the penny sale prizes were: Mary Biehn, John Wickens, R. Fisher, Mary Budd

Crossing Guard

Crossing guards throughout the county will come under the jurisdiction of the new regional police force when it is established in January.

The authority, originally passed on by the regional council elect in October to the police commission was approved at a police commission meeting in November according to commission secretary William Sims.

The cost of the guards, however, will be passed back to the communities in which they operate.

D. Skelton, L. Nelles, R. Chlason, Deane Hedge, Mary Peters, Fred Bill, Jim Collier, Craig Harrison, Joanne Clark, Edna Turnbull, A. Mulward, Barbara Bennett, Carol Schwoss, Jimmy Collier, Mrs. Spicer, Ruth Latimer, Mrs. Herbert, Glen Huffman, Doug Timson, Shirley Turkoz, Sophie Scott, D. Pantling, Edna Renwick, Elsie Halliday.

The Daughters of the Church had their booth which included knitted items and crafts. The Brotherhood of Anglican Churchmen also had a booth in which they had hand-made bird houses and hand-painted bottles containing bubble bath.

Women

By DEANNA BUTWELL

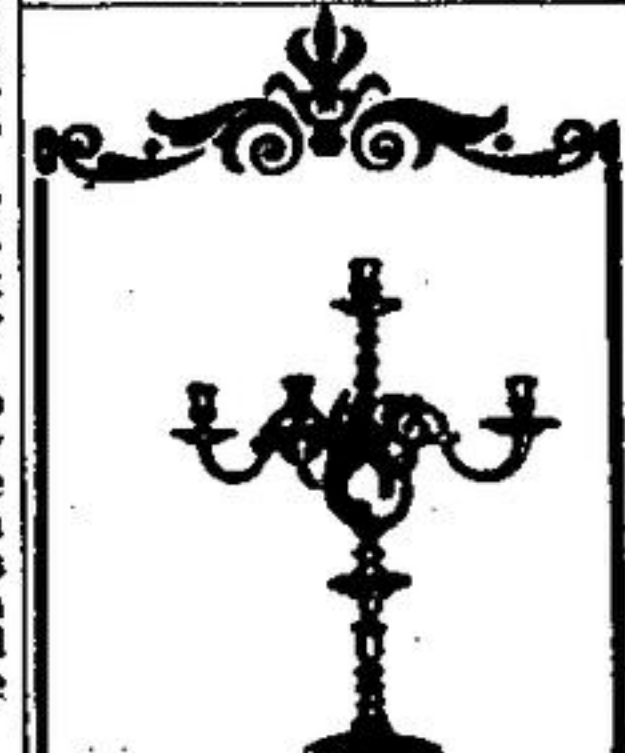

Xi Delta Beta, Georgetown's newly-formed exemplar chapter of Beta Sigma Phi, presented "An evening of fashion by betti-anna" on October third, at the Holy Cross Auditorium.

The fashions, modelled by several of our members, included everything from pant suits to fancy evening wear.

Dorothy Currie, the Ways and Means chairman and her committee, undertook all of the necessary arrangements for the show, and with the co-operation of all members of the chapter, our first project was a tremendous success. Mrs. Campbell was the commentator, and Dorothy

LIGHT LAUGH

Following a recent works committee meeting in Georgetown, several committee members were standing on Main street chatting about the newly installed street lights. Reeve Ric Morrow no sooner said he thought the lights were a tremendous improvement when one of the lights, right on cue, burned out. Apparently the light was showing it's views to the committee.

Looking straight from a Vermeer painting, this gleaming, solid brass candelabra from Holland. $49.95
