

NORVAL NEWS

Unit two of Norval United Church were guests at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Jull, Streetville, for their Christmas meeting held on Tuesday evening, December 11th.

Mrs. Anne Wilson presided for the meeting. Mrs. Edna Murray and Mrs. Mona Fishburn gave a Christmas theme devotional.

During the business it was decided to give donations to the North Halton Contact Centre, to the church treasurer of which one half is to go towards repairs at the manse, and to the Sunday School for the purchase of a cassette and microphone.

Mrs. Gwen Laidlaw gave the nominating committee's report - president, Mrs. Edna Murray, vice president, Mrs. Rosie Laidlaw; secretary, Mrs. Ella Laidlaw; social, Mrs. Nellie Shea.

The evening ended with lunch served by the hostess and a social time was enjoyed.

The Couples' Club of Norval United Church enjoyed an evening of fun for their December meeting by attending Greenwood Race Track on Thursday evening, December 13. About 30 braved the stormy weather and icy roads for the enjoyable evening which included smorgasbord at the race track. The club are busy with plans for their annual New Year's eve party.

Unit One of Norval United Church held their annual Christmas luncheon at the home of Mrs. James Laidlaw on Thursday afternoon, December 13th, with 12 members present.

Following the delicious luncheon, Mrs. Murray Laird presided for the meeting. The roll call was answered with most replying with a poem, and a small gift to their "unknown friend" of the year. Most were quite surprised to find out who had been their "unknown friend". Friendship names were drawn for next year.

Mrs. Lorne Cleave gave a Christmas devotional after which the business was dealt with. All donations from the UCV decided on at the meeting of Unit two were passed unanimously.

Mrs. Guy Wilson gave the nominating committee's report and vacancies were filled in - president, Mrs. Guy Wilson; secretary, Mrs. Percy Laidlaw; treasurer, Mrs. Dan Wey; social committee, Mrs. James Laidlaw, Mrs. Gordon Miller, Mrs. Lorne Cleave and Mrs. Ed McLean.

Tea and Christmas cookies and cake served by the hostess ended the enjoyable afternoon.

Norval Presbyterian Church enjoyed a hot luck luncheon following the church service on Sunday December 15, after which the Sunday School Christmas concert was held with Mr. R. J. Wakfer, Sunday School superintendent, as chairman for the program. Over 100 attended the luncheon and concert.

Skits, songs, plays, etc., were presented by the children of each class. Teachers of the participating classes were Miss Mary McClure, Miss Barbara Davis, Mrs. Marilyn Cunningham, Mrs. Margaret McClure, Mrs. Ruth Donaldson, and Mrs. Russ Gould.

The C.O.C. (Children of the Church) with Miss Alexandra Reed as leader, presented a play and Alexandra played a solo on her flute. Marilyn McClure played a piano solo.

Santa Claus arrived and distributed gifts from the tree which ended an enjoyable afternoon.

Robert Carney had the misfortune to fall on an icy patch of ground and broke his ankle while on duty with the Chinguacousy Fire Department recently. The fire turned out to be a false alarm but it will keep Robert out of action until his broken leg is healed.

Sympathy is extended to Russell McClure and family of Georgetown, on the death of his wife Helen in a car accident on Sunday, December 9. His daughter Janet (Mrs. John Goy) was also injured in the accident. They also have a son, Bobby, at home. Russell has been a patient in a Toronto hospital for several months.

Get well wishes are extended to Mrs. Frank Ferguson who is a patient in Georgetown & District Memorial Hospital.

Forty mile speed limit signs have been posted on the town line south of the village. Those residents who live on this road hope they will do some good in slowing down the speed of the traffic which is quite heavy during morning and evening rush hours.

MR. AND MRS. GUNDING Couple Joined

Elizabeth Young and Nigel Gunding were married in Duff's Presbyterian Church, Puslinch on August 11. The bride is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. F. Norman Young of Morrison and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Gunding of 48 Byron St., Georgetown. The marriage ceremony was conducted by the bride's father and her brother, Donald Young.

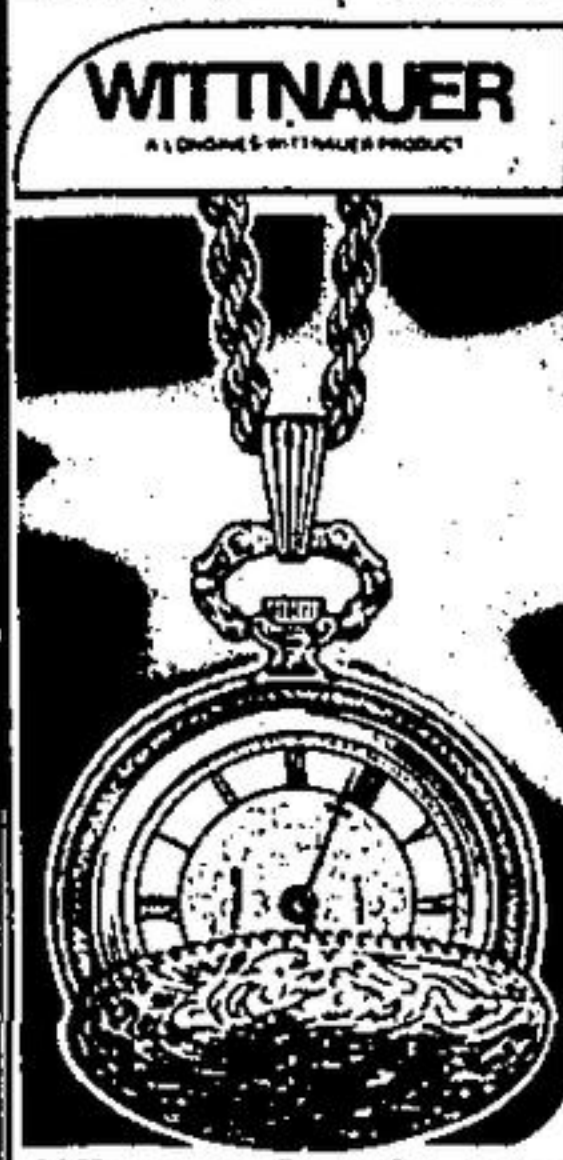

The bride wore a floor length white satin and nylon gown; the lace bodice and sleeves matched the finger tip veil which was held in place by a Juliet cap. A long train trimmed with lace appliques flowed out from the body of the dress. The bride carried a nosegay of red sweetheart roses, white carnations, stephanotis and baby's breath.

Eileen Young, the bride's sister was maid of honor. Miss Irene Keir, Mrs. Loretta Lavell (sister of the groom) and Miss Ann Bamsey served as attendants. They wore red and white gingham gowns with white floppy hats and carried baskets of red and white carnations.

The best man was Richard Mellor; Brian Gunding, brother of the groom, the groom's brother-in-law Phillip Lovell, and the bride's brother Donald Young ushered the guests into the church.

The bride's mother wore a floor length rose gown with a corsage of pink sweetheart roses; the groom's mother also wore a long floral dress with a white orchid surrounded by pink roses.

Music for the ceremony was provided by the organist Mrs.
