

Santa Arrives At Legion

by WRIGHT SMITH
First of all, apologies are due for the non-appearance of the "Notes" last week.
The reason was sickness, mine. However, as I was saying, Branch 120 is in full swing for the festive season.
Santa arrived in full array on December 13 attended by those musical maestros, the Brampton Clowns band. The jolly gent was ambushed by over 150 children on his entrance, but he ho-ho-hoed his way through with his customary cool.
Sports results for the weekend of Dec. 7 and 8 are as follows:
Friday night car club number 12—Trevor Williams, M. Bennett, F. Walker, Archie Pollock, Ted Barnes, Dunc Robinson.
Steak-Dart winners on the same evening— Sam Gibby, Lorne Cross, Jan Emmerson, George T. Sandifer, Bill Richards, Jake Timpon, Cliff Everett, Helen Atkinson, Myrna Brayley and Lottie Belmont.
Car club number 13 drawn on Friday Dec. 14 was as follows:— Dave Coppersall, Chuck Crawford, Eric Rosa, Alec Zillio, Dan Engley, and R. Lockhurst.
On the same evening the dart-steak winners were:— Bill

Ritchie, Gord King, Ken Pearson, Don Heigh (2), Helen Cloutier, Sam Gibby, Marg Hodder, Frank Hale and Hazel Dumper.
The air cadet wardrobe draw was won by Mrs. Ronald McIntyre of 32 Regan Cres.
Branch 120 Christmas tree draw winner was Ralph Hawes and the Imperial section's 50-50 draw was won by Teresa Harrison. Whilst on the subject of the Imps, their Christmas party held on Dec. 13 was a huge success. Our thanks go to the host and hostess of the evening.
There are still some tickets available for the New Year's Eve dance. Just to set the record straight, these tickets are reserved until Dec. 28 for paid up Legion members, and paid members of the Ladies Auxiliary whose husbands do not belong to Branch 120. This is an evening set aside primarily for the enjoyment of Legion members, however any tickets not sold by Dec. 28 will go on sale to members of 120 and the L.A. who wish to take guests. Tickets may be purchased over the bar.
And now, in closing, I would like to take this opportunity and wish everyone the compliments of the season and may we all do our part and keep the Christ in Christmas.

GLEN WILLIAMS

The Glen Williams Canadian Girls in Training, and Explorers' Group, performed together, and presented a lovely vesper Christmas Candelight service, Sunday evening Dec. 9, in St. John's United Church.
The CGIT girls, gave the readings, and the Explorers group, made up the choir. The first of the three readers, was Perri Sparks, and the second reader, was Lynda Carney. Cindy Stafford gave the third reading. The girls who took part in the readings to illustrate the religious theme were, Diane Veuhoff, Annette Browning, Mary-Ann Van Ryn, Nancy Hartwick, Susan Doyle, and Collette Snyder. The Candelighters were, Beth Carmichael, Susan Brenner and Cathy Carmichael.
Greeting people at the door, Rhonda Piper, represented the Explorers, and Kim Wilcox represented the CGIT. The girls taking the offering were Nikki Carney, and Bonnie Martin. The music director for the Explorers' group choir, was Miss Brenda McNeil. The choir consisted of fourteen girls, Juanita Jones, Rosemary Fredericksen, Irene Van Ryn, Ponna Service, Adrea Stratford, Kelly Wilcox, Christine Steinfalt, Joanne Emmerson, Andrea Wolfe, Michelle Richmond, Janice Henderson and Nadine Rice. The service concluded with each girl circling the church with a lighted candle, after which, refreshments were served.

CGIT, and Explorers, held their last meeting for this year, on Wednesday evening, Dec. 12. The CGIT girls spent most of the evening making Christmas tree ornaments, concluding with the exchanging of gifts. A pot luck supper, was enjoyed the same evening, by the Explorers group, held in the home of their leader, Karen Ferguson. Gifts were exchanged, and numerous games were enjoyed by all. Both the CGIT and Explorers will hold their next meeting on the evening of January 9, in St. John's United Church, here in the Glen.
St. Alban's Guild, recently held its Christmas party, hosted by the president, Mrs. Maureen Frank, in her home. A brief monthly meeting took place, followed by a Christmas sing-song, card playing, and a delicious luncheon. In respect for a very enjoyable evening, the Guild presented Mrs. Frank with a decorative Christmas centre piece.

Our best wishes for a speedy recovery, are extended to four-year-old Stephanie Green, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Green. Stephanie returned home from the Peel Memorial Hospital, last Wednesday morning, following a successful eye operation.
Mr. and Mrs. James Holder have returned home, following a recent camping weekend in New York State. On their way home, May and Jim enjoyed viewing the bird migration at various points along the Niagara River.

Jean and Stan Norton, leaders of the Glen Boy's Youth Group, for over the past two years, were honored with a surprise dinner and party, last Saturday evening, in St. Alban's Parish hall. The party was given by the Boy's Youth Group, and organized by Roy and Mrs. R.E. Ruggles, Mr. Roy Lauenburger, Mr. Grant Emmerson, and Ted Findley, as well as, all the boy's parents. Special guests were, Constable and Mrs. Jim Redpath of Milton, who have helped the boys in many ways over the past two years. A lovely cake was presented to Jean and Stan, by the boys, as well as a donation, which will be made this week to the children's ward of the Georgetown and District Hospital, on behalf of Jean and Stan Norton. Cheryl Findley, has organized the Boys Group for a choral sing-song to individual residents in the Glen

These funds will be donated to St. Alban's church school-children attended this service, and in lieu of a sermon, Christmas carols were sung. The flowers on the altar, were in loving memory of the late Mr. Reg Williams.
At this time, we would like to extend our sincere wishes to Rev. Ruggles, for a quick recovery from his recent illness.

The Business girls first draw finished up last Wednesday and finishing in first place was Peggy Crichton with Lou Morefield, Pam Soward and Sherrill Collins. Second place went to Betty Hull with Norma Rush, Audrey Ruston and Ivy Darbin and third place to Verna Schenk, Marianne Leggate, Jo Anne McNally and Ollie Cameron. The turkeyspiel is on the 19th and the regular schedule begins again after Christmas. The men's section moved up or down in their ladder system, depending on their record and new team numbers have been assigned until after the mixed draw is completed and then there will be some changes made because more ice time will be available to the men.

The annual Wine and Cheese was last week and the Club really outdid themselves. There was a lovely selection of imported wines and a large number of different cheeses which am sure tickled everyone's palate.
The next big event around the Club is the Langdon Mixedspiel right after Christmas so be sure and rest up so you will be in good form.
The junior bonspiel is all set for the 30th of December so why not come out to the club parents and cheer the kids on. They have really taken to the game and deserve a pat on the back. Harvey Chapel skipped his team of Gord Campbell, Dunc Moneypenny and Ken Taplin to the first place spot at Orangeville last week, and they plan to get out on more spels later on.
It seems like no time at all that curling started and here the first draw is over already. Merry Christmas to you all and a Happy and Prosperous 1974 to you and your families.
