128 Curlers Compete For Langdon Trophy

The Langdon Trophy was the major competition last week and 128 curlers participated for this event. Capturing the first event and the Langdon Trophy was Harvey Chappel with Don Milton, vice; John Reynolds, second; and Mazie Hay, lead. Runners-up in the first were Doug Cram, and his rink with vice Cornell vice; Ron Perego, second; and Vi Bonnevillie, lead.

The Second Event was won by Jim Lusby with Gail Sparks, vice; Don Nicholson, second; and Linda Linberg, lead. Runners-up in the second were Ken Ewan and his team of Arden Mainprize, vice; Ron Young, second; and Eileen Manley, lead.

Third Even honors went to the team of Jim Wilson, skip; Marg Ellen, sparring for Gert McGee, vice; Jim Bonnevillie, second; and Norma Rush, lead. They won over Ken Allen, skip; Norma Porter, vice; Bob Bruce, second; and Adrienne Pink, lead.

The fourth event was taken by Gord Partridge and his team with Betty Broomhead, vice; Paul Anderson, second; and Marianne Leggat, lead. The winners of the fourth event were Ken Howat, skip; Doreen Geofreda, vice; Gord McKeeman, second; and Carole Lusby, lead.

A tremendous week was had by all who participated and our thanks to Mike and Doreen Geofreda, Bob and Gail Sparks, and the whole mixed committee who organized this club event.

The Business Girls Provincial Playdowns for our Club Representation was won by Bea Embling and her rink of Diane Mann, Karin Henderson and Lorna Elliott. They beat the team of Peggy Crichton, Marg O'Flaherty, Jean Chappel and Cynthia Partridge in a best of two out of three games. They now go to Chingouscouy for the District Playdowns. Harvey Chappel and his rink of Dune Moneypenny, Gord Campbell and Ken Taplin won the District Legion Playdown and will now represent us in the Provincial Playoffs to be held in February at our club. The Mens Halton-Peel Bonspiel got under way last Saturday and will wind up this coming Saturday with the finals at our club all day.

Mixed curling for the second draw starts this Friday evening and the Juniors start their second draw on Sunday afternoon at 1:00 p.m.

A & W DRIVE IN

This week marks the first anniversary of Georgetown's A & W under the ownership of Ray Charron. During Mr. Charron's first year, he instigated several new policy changes indicative of his business philosophy.

"I prefer a satisfied customer," Ray says. "If it's not to the customers liking, it's not to my liking."

"I pay top dollar for the quality of food. I bring in. Customers would do me a favor by telling me if something about the service disagrees with them."

"I want the customer to be satisfied. If a customer has a valid complaint, I want to hear about it. The customer owes it to himself to do this."

Ray employs 17 people at his business as well as sponsoring a minor hockey team. He is also training officer for the Lorne Scott cadet corps.

Ray lives with his wife Linda and son Brian at 35 Hewson Cres. in Georgetown. Get to know him.
