The roll call was answered with "Name a Canadian Woman you admire and tell why."

Mrs. R. Lawson introduced, Mrs. Henry Vandersluis, who gave a most interesting talk on citizenship and displayed books on this subject made up by the girls she teaches at Thursday evening classes at the Christian Reform Church.

Lunch was served by the hostesses and members enjoyed a social half hour.

Sincere sympathy of the community is extended to the family of the late Mrs. Neilson Stark who died in Georgetown and District Hospital, Monday, December 7.

Mrs. Stark was a life long resident of the district, and her activities in the community were many.

We, along with many others, will miss her friendly visits each week as she delivered her butter, eggs and poultry to customers.

Sympathy is also extended to Mrs. James Weatherston of Toronto, whose husband passed away in Toronto General Hospital on Monday, January 7.

Mrs. Weatherston was the former Elizabeth Bonathan who was born in Stewarttown, attended public school here and Georgetown High School.

Since their marriage in 1937, Mr. and Mrs. Weatherston have lived in Toronto. They have one daughter, Lynda.

Flowers on the altar at St. John's Church on Sunday were given by the Markham family, in loving memory of Mr. and Mrs. John Oakes.

Former Teacher Dies

A longtime teacher in Georgetown, Miss Elizabeth Penston, died Jan. 10 at the age of 89.

Miss Penston taught at Georgetown High School until her retirement in 1945. She held a master of arts degree and taught science.

Upon her retirement, she moved to Toronto where she lectured at the Royal Ontario Museum and she held a teaching post in the chemistry department of the University of Toronto.

It had always been her dream to retire to the Muskoka region, where she had spent many summers. After the death of her sister, she bought a parcel of land and had a home built.

Afterwards, she moved to London, Ont. where a niece lives. In her later years, she made her home with a grand-niece.
