NEW SIGNS

(Herald Photo)

The Department of Highways and Transportation are currently in the process of replacing highway signs in the area surrounding the Credit River bridge in Norval. The old signs were taken down when the construction began on the new bridge which was completed last year.

BALLINAFAD

Carnival Committee Pleased With Dance

The committee in charge of the Winter Carnival Dance held in the COMMUNITY Hall Jan. 19 were very pleased with the tremendous success of the fund-raising venture.

The dance, sponsored by the Ballinafad club pack, was very well attended. The hall was nicely decorated with artificial snowflakes which were made by the club. Music was provided by disc jockey.

The club had their outing to Toronto on Saturday and enjoyed seeing the ice follies. The highlight was the supper-hour when they stopped at McDonald's for hamburgers.

Sorry to hear that three of the village residents are confined to hospital. Stan Gurak is recovering from a serious operation. Charles Plouffe Sr. is a patient in the Georgetown hospital and Mrs. Lil Curtis has had a cataract operation in the Brampton hospital. We wish all three a quick recovery and hope they may be able to return to their homes here very soon.

Mrs. Ella Day spent a few days last week with the Marshalls before returning to her home in British Columbia.

Calvin Sanderson is taking an eight week course at Centennial College in Scarborough.

The newly elected executive of the United Church Women were installed by the minister during the service of worship on Sunday. The sermon was "Discovering The New Testament" and comments on The Lord's Prayer given by Mr. Stiles held the interest of the congregation.

The junior choir under the direction of Mrs. Kerr added to the service. Next Sunday, the newly formed Mens choir hope to sing during the service.

There was a good crowd out on Saturday to enjoy dancing at the community centre to recorded country music. All reported having a good time.

The annual meeting of the Community Centre Board was held Sunday afternoon with a fair attendance. Duties and positions were somewhat changed as three former members who had held office for some time stepped down.

The new board consists of Mrs. Ann Trueman, Mrs. Linda Pabst, Mrs. Marlene Burnette, Mrs. Linda O'Connor, Chuck Portill, Morley Shortill, and chairman Ivan Bird. Past chairman was Hank Burnett, who along with Mrs. Ida Smith and recreation chairman Bill Smith completed their term of office.

The first meeting of the Hall Board was held on Tuesday evening. Plans were made for the coming year's Valentine Dance which will be held on Feb. 9 instead of Feb. 16 as formerly announced. The tin is malleable and can be rolled, pressed or hammered into extremely thin tin foil sheets.
