A ladies' open bonselpiel was held at the club last week and the winning team was skipped by Bea Lent of Glen Briar Waterloo for the first draw. Second place went to Lorna Core of Brampton and third place to Eleanor Robertson of Oakville. The second draw was won by Helen Spademan of Dixie, second place went to Bette Broomhead of North Halton who had Ethel Murdy, Doreen Geofreda and Ann Timmins on her rink and third place went to Phil McCurdy of Chinguacousy club.

Three North Halton teams are going to Brampton this week to compete in the four-year and seven-year filly bonselpiel.

The Junior bonselpiel at the club will start Sunday morning at 11 a.m.

A men's open Steak & Mushroom bonselpiel took place on the weekend and the results of the early draw were as follows:

Taking first place was a team from Weston skipped by K. Blackwell. Second place went to D. Scott of Humber Highland club and third place went to a North Halton team skipped by Roger Levenue who had Wayne Taylor, Gord Partridge and Mike Makovnyk on his team. The second draw winners were Ray Steele of North Halton. With Ray were Jim Lusby, Doug Cramm and Gary Knight.

Second place went to J. Arnold of Humber Highland and B. Vandergraaf of Chinguacousy. The men were given a steak lunch and steaks were given as prizes.

The Men's Governor Generals took place on Sunday and it has been narrowed down to two clubs who will compete at 8 a.m. Sunday at the club. Brampton will be competing against Orangeville to be winners of the District.

The tickets went out to the lady members of North Halton this week for the upcoming fashion show on April 10th. Please support the ladies in this project. The proceeds are for the benefit of both lady golfers and curlers.

Shutouts On Both Sides In Novice Hockey Action

By Shirli Richmond

NOVICE LEAGUE
Friday March 8

Toronto - 4
Boston - 0

Chris McDonald scored the winner. Tim Panabaker notched the last tally and Greg Muir added two goals in between for Toronto's win. Each scorer also assisted one. Craig Harrison and Dave LeBlanc earned MIP awards for Toronto. Darren Kemp and Greg Finnamore got the nod for Boston.

Chicago - 0
Montreal - 0

Only four players turned up for Montreal and all earned the MIP choice. Ken McDonald, Glen Puckering, Jamie Hooker and No. 16. MIP's for Chicago were Gary Morrow and John Papenhuysen.

New York - 3
Pittsburgh - 2

Mark Waters shot the hat trick for New York's win. Andre Mustard and Alan Monaghan replied for Pittsburgh. MIP's: New York, Peter Heisser and Alan Presly; Pittsburgh, Ken Ruff and Brad Hanson.

Minnesota - 0
St. Louis - 0

Terry Merrill and Peter Brake earned Minnesota's MIP award in this scoreless game. George Osborne in goal. Shawn Dockery and Tommy Gillanders were St. Louis MIP's.

Detroit - 1
Los Angeles - 0

Rick Greenwood was the big shooter of the game, scoring the only goal. Doug Staddon and Todd Collins were Detroit's MIP's. Don Gilbert and Doug Reed earned L.A.'s.

MIDGET LEAGUE
Sunday, March 10

Lane's Transport - 2
Burns Transport - 1

In the battle of the transport crew, Lane's strong team play surprised Burns and stung them for the win. Kevin McNeilly shot the winner from Gary McIlravy. Gary set up the first goal from Russ Gray to Danny Anderson. Ken Flindall got Burns' only marker from Tom McCormack on the power play.

Masson Motors - 1
Scotia Bank - 3

Ray McMahon set up Danny Field for the winner early in the final frame in an exciting see-saw game. Dave Parker from McMahon, then Doug Timpon potted a pair unassisted. Andy Holland, Ken Garbutt and Bill Martin were the money boys marksmen. Ted Suave assisted on one. Both Mike's, Russell for Masson and McCormack for Scotia, played well in the nets.

Hameo Excavating - 5
Cable TV - 1

Hameo bantam 4-Towners bounced the TV crew on skating and checking. Wayne Osborne, Don Fisher and Scott Beckett shot singles. Tom Davies scored two. Assists went to Sam Watt (2), Fisher, Osborne, Ken Flynn, Derek Berlemont and Dave Paterson. Randy White scored Cable's lone goal unassisted, a good high shot.

JUVENILE LEAGUE
Saturday, March 9

Exchange House - 3
Noseworthy Excavating - 2

Persistence paid off for the hotel gang, skating and checking its way to a win over the midget 4-Towners. Dave Holmes, Ron Wellon and Andy Morrison were the shooters. Bert Van Leiven, Dave Blight, Clyde Leggett (2) assisted. Greg Bodnar from Mike Osborne and Doug Thompson then Howie Gaskin from Dale Richmond and Mike Parsons replied for the 4-Towners. Terry Crawford was hot in goal for Exchange House.

Jim's Steering - 6
Knights of Columbus - 5

Behind the shooting of Graham Richards who shot a hat trick, the Steering gang just beat the Knights. Arnie Lefebvre, Paul Barton and Mike Harris scored the other goals. Gary Miller (2), Gavin Strachin and Larry Cook assisted. Mike Zuber also shot three for the losers. Gerry Anderson and Warren Chard added singles. Chard, Anderson and Mike Deere assisted.

Tournament time is here again. This Saturday the Nelson Real Estate Pee Wee 4-Towners and the Hameo Excavating bantam 4-Towners are entrants in a house league tournament in Hanover. The big tournament, the one all the 4-Town teams have been getting ready for, starts on Thursday, March 21 in Newmarket. All the teams from Atom to Midget divisions will battle Lindsay in the first round.
