Optimist Novices In Plattsville Tourny
At the opening of the Georgetown Bantam tournament, Friday, March 15 the Georgetown novices defeated visiting Chinguacousy 4-1.
The Optimist's scored first on a goal by Jeff Moore from Howie Oram. Ching tied the game at the 41 second mark of the third period but Georgetown's young ones took the lead at 9:20 of the third with Maurice David the goalgetter assisted by Eric Clark. Maurice David scored his second goal of the game unassisted at 1:10.
The fourth and final goal was scored at 13:20 on a three way effort, Mike Stone from Brain Jobb and Fred Kendrick. Goalie Kevin Gillespie was outstanding, stopping several breakaways.
Last weekend Georgetown Optimist Novice's took part in Plattsville Little Brave Novice Tournament on Thursday, March 21.
For their first game, Georgetown drew Preston as their opposition. Georgetown had been scheduled to meet Preston in a regular league game but had to cancel it because of sickness to the players of the Preston team. When they found Preston to be their rivals for the first game in the tournament they were given permission to count this game as the original league game. Georgetown went out and skated to a shut-out beating Preston 6 to 0.
Goalenders Glen Vuigs and Kevin Gillespie both worked hard to earn their shutout.
Scoring for Georgetown were Maurice David and Eric Clark. David Doucette, unassisted; Greg Robertson unassisted and a big night for

Paintings In Peel
The delicate paintings of Gery Puley can be seen at the Peel Museum and Art Gallery for the month beginning April 8.
Born in British Columbia, Gery Puley came east in 1946 after studying in the Calgary Collegiate Institute and the Alberta Institute of Art and Technology under a wealth of well known artists, continuing her studies here at the Ontario College of Art with F. Hagan, Howley Murphy and others.
She also studied at the Don School of Fine Arts under C. Schaefer, Henry Masson and John Martin as well as at the Art Students League of New York and the Dundas Valley School of Arts. She has taught extensively and between 1971 and 1973 was at Sheridan College, holding a workshop in Spain in 1973.
Mrs. Puley has held numerous exhibitions of her own in Hamilton, Burlington and Owen Sound and has been invited to exhibit at the Hamilton Art Gallery, Guelph Painting on the Green and the Art Gallery of Ontario-Travelling Exhibition CSPWC 1973-1974.
She has won many awards for both her drawings and water colors and her paintings hang in private homes right across Canada from Hamilton and Burlington to British Columbia as well as in the U.S.A. and other countries.
