

DOWN IN THE DUMP(S)

DUMPS, especially those that are sanitary landfill in nature, aren't exactly very scenic as far as dumping goes. Most of the rubbish deposited daily is hidden beneath earth fill. These young people are Grade 4 pupils from a Malton public school and they are down in the dump for a visit as part of their environmental studies.

LIMEHOUSE NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Holtman and son Eddie camped and enjoyed a few days fishing at Lake Opeongo recently. A friendly bear paid a daylight call.

Congratulations to teachers and students at Limehouse Public School in winning first in a triple duet, second in a primary choir and second in a junior choir. Mrs. S. Mileham presented a trophy on behalf of Limehouse Women's Institute.

Congratulations to Mrs. Wilfred Harding, who won the Mother of the Week title from C.H.I.C. radio station, and a lovely bouquet by Fendley Florists.

Mrs. Wilfred Harding and Mrs. Roy Culp were co-hostesses at the former's home, at a baby shower for Mrs. Frank Fuller (nee Wanda Culp) on last Wednesday evening.

We welcome Mr. and Mrs. Roy Denny (nee Mary Lou Brown) to the community. They have moved to the Brown house, recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kara and Robbie, who have moved to their new home on the Check line.

The local association met at the home of Mrs. Ronald Clow on May 14 with 11 attending. They enjoyed lunch after the meeting.

We are sorry to report that the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford McDonald was damaged by fire on Sunday evening.

We extend sympathy to Mr. Robert Lindsay and family and the McLaughlin family in the passing of Helen on Sunday morning.

PUPILS FROM Ridgewood Public School in Malton march down into the Halton Hills municipal dump at Georgetown. Two busloads of pupils visited the sanitary landfill site last Tuesday. Their visit was arranged through the town's public works department, with assistance from Georgetown Pollution Probe. Concept of the sanitary landfill site was explained to the pupils. (Herald Photos)
