(Herald Photo)

The Royalettes are involved in play-offs right now. Having tied with Burlington in the best of three series for the first round, they play the deciding game on Tuesday night at the Fairgrounds.

Laura Wilkes has been doing most of the pitching for the game against Burlington. The Royalettes played well but came away 8-5 losers.

Magnusons gave their all full strength to beat Cable Jets with the score of 30-11. Home runs came off the bats of (Magnusons) Patti Caruso (3) Lori Worrall (1) Joan Wright (1) and (Cable Jets) Sharon Greenstade (1) and grand slam Colleen Sunnucks (1). Game stars picked for this game were (Magnusons) Patti Caruso and Debbie Baland and for Cable Jets were Sharon Greenstade and Sheila Anderson.

Blue Giants held the lead all the way for a victory of 19 runs. Home runs were hit by Linda George of the winning team and Sue Maveal for the losers. Laura Russel earned the game star for her plays in centre field for Blue Giants and Sue Maveal was picked for her home run (Foberts).

Youngs made it hard for Standard to gain this victory and only allowed them to get 6 more runs than themselves. Both teams worked extremely hard and allowed no one to get a home run. Game stars of this game were (Standard) Kim Beckett and Kim Herrington who played catcher and picked off 4 runners at the plate. Sharon Barclay worked hard on first base and was picked as star for Youngs.

It was a close game but Smoke Shop worked a little harder and earned their first victory over Thrush. Home runs came off the bats of (Smoke Shop) Debbie Jones (2) Christine Vetricek (1) Rhonda Breen (1) and for Thrush Irene Watt and Maureen Ollivier both hit one. Christine Vetricek and Debbie Jones (Pitcher) received game stars for Smoke Shop and Karen Wilson starred for her team (Thrush).

Upholstery had no intention of losing this game so they took the game from the start and didn't let Kinetics catch up. The only home runs to be hit were all from the winning team (Upholstery) Linda Holborough (2) Ginny Wilkes (1) Lesley Rand (1) Donna Reed (1) and Julie Armstrong (1). Game stars were (Upholstery) Ginny Wilkes and Linda Holborough with the whole team starring for their good effort on Kinetics.

This was a very close game with the final score of 18-16. Home runs were hit by (Inter County) Silvana Girardi (2) Doris Tuel (2) and for the losers (Paulines) Joan Gilmer (4) Debbie Ford (1) and Nancy Lieder (1). Game stars were Julie Fournier and Doris Tuel for Inter County with Joan Gilmer for her home runs and the whole team for team effort starring together for Paulines.

It was anybody's game at the start but during the last inning Frekar put in a little extra effort and drove in 5 runs for a win. Carol Carter was the only one to hit a home run for the winning team but Kathy Beckett, Mary Caruso and Alison Ritchie homered for Dairy Queen. Game stars were Darlene Currie for her pitching for Frekar and Kathy Beckett for her good effort trying to catch the ball at short stop was

Armbro's Defence Crushed

The Armbro Construction Tykes, in their only game of the week, lost 21-8 to Burlington.

Both teams were equally matched when batting, but Armbro's defense let them down. Armbro's lack of organization was probably due to several players being absent with holidays. House league help had to be brought up to bring the team to full strength.

Their game on Tuesday night had to be cancelled because of the shortage of players. This game, against Brampton, will be played at a later date.

Burlington now lead the league standings, with Brampton second, Georgetown third, Milton fourth and Oakville a distant fifth. Point standings are unfortunately not available because some game results are not in.

The Tykes now have three games left in their schedule. The first game will have taken place Monday night at home against Milton. The next is in Oakville on Thursday and their final game is against Brampton at an undecided date.

Peewee

The W.T. Moore Construction Peewees played two league games this week, losing one and tying one.

They visited Chinguacousy and came away with a creditable 5-5 tie. This game was as tight as the score suggested.

Georgetown were, like many teams, weakened by holidays, but nevertheless made the best of their opportunities.

A second game at home against Oakville, however, was less successful. Oakville's consistently good batting eventually wore down the Moore boys.

Georgetown were aided by Dave Harrington from the house league and Paul Wilson from the Tyke All Stars, and the game was kept close for several innings.

Bantam.

Mike Tarp's Georgetown Chrysler Bantams had a busy week, but were unable to improve their record.

They lost a 5-0 decision on Wednesday night at home to Waterdown. Waterdown's pitcher registered 13 strike outs, only allowing four hits.

However, Waterdown were only 1-0 up at the end of the sixth, and had Georgetown's batting been up to par they may have been able to save the game.

Two errors in the top of the seventh allowed Waterdown four more runs and put Georgetown out of the picture.

The Chrysler boys travelled to Streetsville on Thursday, and dropped a hairline 5-4 decision.

Georgetown's batters were playing better, with Darren Kuchmah 2-3, Gregg Morton 3-4 and Joe Scott 2-3. Errors proved costly though as Georgetown led 4-2 through six innings, and then dropped three runs in the seventh.

Their third game proved as disappointing as the first two. Brampton beat Mike Tarp's boys 11-2 in Georgetown.

Georgetown's batters were again silent; only two players were able to apply any pressure. Kuchmah 2-3 and Earl Maltby 1-2 were the two standouts.

Brampton's pitcher was in top form, striking out 15.

Holidays again accounted for Georgetown's lack of bite, Marty Powers and Mike Hartley were called up from the Peewees for two of the three games.

Midget

The Georgetown Lions travelled to Waterdown on Wednesday to drop a narrow 1-0 result.

As the score suggests, the game featured an exciting pitchers duel; Doug Barnes for the Lions and the Waterdown pitcher both threw two-hitters.

Waterdown with no errors and two pickoff plays at home had just the edge in the end. However, the Lions played extremely well, and this was one of their best efforts of the season.

Mike McCandless at short played a great defensive game although it was in a losing cause.

The Midgets fared much better on Friday in Brampton as they came home with a 10-2 win. Al Denamore with a home run led the squad at the plate. Mike McCandless' pitching effort backed by a good solid team effort which proved too much for Brampton to contain. Winning or losing, the Lions are playing some very good ball, and it is disheartening to see so few fans watching the game.

We apologize for not having results from this week's Tyke and Peewee house leagues. However we will give full coverage to these two leagues next week.

IT'S JUST DOWN THE HILL.

Royalettes All Square With Tough Burlington

The Georgetown Royalettes will have to win on Tuesday night to go through to the second round of the Provincial Womens Softball Union playoffs. At press time they are tied one all with Burlington in the best of three series.

After winning the first game of the series Thursday night, the Royalettes slumped at home Saturday, leaving the series all square. The deciding game will be played Tuesday night at the Fairgrounds. The location was decided by the flipping of a coin.

Playing at Kilbride, near Burlington, the Royalettes seemed to have Burlington contained, and won 14-9.

Georgetown's batting was steady and productive, rather than spectacular. Laura Wilkes' pitching was effective and their defense contained the uninspired Burlington batters. Slacking at the end of the ninth allowed Burlington to make a late come-back and make the score respectable.

However, it was a different story on Saturday night. The Royalettes couldn't find the smooth rhythm that had worn down Burlington three nights previously. Their batters couldn't cope with the extremely fast Burlington pitcher and were often struck out with the bases loaded.

Burlington, on the other hand, were a completely different team from the ragged one on Thursday and the game was kept close. It was a case of Burlington making the most of the breaks that came their way, whereas Georgetown seemed to run out of luck.

These two very evenly matched teams will clash on Tuesday night in the clincher. With a little luck and a good start Georgetown should be able to progress to the next round, but it will be a close game.
