

George A. Wilson Plowing In Halton In The Early 1900's

George Chuvalo At Match

Heavyweight boxing champion, George Chuvalo and Canadian Commonwealth Welterweight champion, Clyde Gray will take on unfamiliar roles during September 24 and 28.

Chuvalo and Gray will be at the International Plowing Match at Georgetown, Ontario to help promote new corn varieties for Pride Hybrid Co. of Canada.

A Pride Power theme featuring a boxing glove is the reason the two champions will be present at the Match. They will be at the Pride booth and will ride in the parade each day with Pride Girl, Chip Oud.

Clyde Gray is currently number one contender for the World Welterweight title held by Jose Napoles of Mexico. Gray lost to the Mexican champion but hopes for a rematch in the near future.

PRIZES $149 IN 1866

Taken from the pages of the Canadian Champion, October 18, 1866.

The long talked-of plowing match between Esquesing and Nassagaweya has at last taken place. The match took place last Friday on the farm of Alexander Brown of Acton. The day and the ground were all that could be desired. About 400 of the Yeomen of the townships were present, and manifested a warm interest in the proceedings of the day. Thirty-six champions intent on sustaining the honor of their respective townships, took part in the match. It was, we believe, the verdict of everyone competent to judge, that each and all did well, many excellent and that not a few were hard to beat. The judges were Wm. Benham of Guelph, J. Drinkwater of Chinguacousy, Hartley of Alton, W. C. Beatty of Trafalgar and William Robertson of Erin. Prizes amounted to $149.

7 PRIZEWINNERS 1867 AT MILTON

The plowing match of the Halton Agricultural Society took place at Milton on Tuesday. As the ground was not in good condition for plowing, on account of the dryness of the season, there were only seven competitors, each of whom received a prize.
