

Four Years' Work To Prepare For Match

Halton Plowmen's Association and Halton regional employees have been working for four years, since 1970, on 23 committees preparing and promoting the 1974 International Plowing Match.

The man in charge, Ross Segsworth has worked closely with Halton's OPA director, Jack Taylor of Burlington, vice-chairman Dr. C. A. Martin, secretary Henry Stanley and treasurer, John Keyworth all of Milton.

Organizers are working on a $100,000 budget. That should be recovered by gate receipts and any surplus funds will repay the regional council's loan establish new agricultural scholarships and be divided between Halton's three agricultural societies.

CHAIRMAN CARRIES ON

A four-wheel drive vehicle has been lent to Ross Segsworth to carry on his work as chairman of the 1974 Plowing Match Committee for Halton. Mr. Segsworth, a semi-retired dairy farmer from Burlington has been working with 23 committees since 1970 to co-ordinate this year's event. Working with a $100,000 budget the chairmen have arranged for every last detail, from servicing to clean-up, parking to policing, lunches to banquets.
