

CHARLENE BOYD and Pam Hurren show off their purchases at the Bake Sale held at Park Public School last Thursday. Baked goods donated by the parents of the kids were brought in and sold to raise money for the resource centre. A total of $157.21 was collected which will buy filmstrips and cushions for the library. The entire school helped prepare for the sale and parents and senior citizens across from the school were invited to participate. Eight cakes were raffled. The lucky winners were; Denise Leece, Robin Dodokin, Charlene Boyd, Diana Collet, Nicky Douppagne, Chrissy Hancock, Bobbie Jo Walter and Bruce Hulme.

National president addresses Council

A special luncheon meeting was held by the Georgetown Local Council of Women on Friday, Oct. 18 at St. George's Church.

The meeting was held in honor of its special guests Mrs. Kay Armstrong, president of the National Council of Women of Canada and Mrs. Frances Dane, vice-president of the Provincial Council of Women of Ontario.

provincial and local councils. She also urged intercommunication between the local councils of Georgetown, Hamilton and Niagara Falls since all are involved in regionalization.

In her introduction of Mrs. Armstrong, Mrs. Dane remarked that Mrs. Armstrong had just finished two very busy interesting weeks visiting many local councils in Ontario with the national president.

Government since it meets annually with the Prime Minister and members of Cabinet to discuss resolutions presented by the council. Since it is a broad indication of the opinion of Canadian Women this meeting is valued by the government.

Questioned on the stand taken by National Council concerning the issue of abortion, Mrs. Armstrong said it favors removal of abortion from the criminal code, feeling that the decision should be between the woman and her doctor and if married, her husband. "We are deeply concerned, however," she said, "with the effect of multiple abortions on the young teenage girl where abortion is used instead of birth control.

The news from Norval

Sympathy is extended to the Cunningham family on the sudden death of David Cunningham in a fire at his home on Dayfoot Drive, Georgetown.

David, son of the late Robert Cunningham and Mrs. Cunningham of Georgetown, was raised on a farm just south of the village. He was a descendant of an 'old-time Norval district family.

Get well wishes are extended to Mrs. Lorne Cleave of Maple Ave., Georgetown, who spent a week in Georgetown and District Memorial Hospital.

Gordon Douglas, District Commissioner, invested Ray Dimock as leader of the Norval Cubs at a special meeting of the Cubs and Scouts held in the Parish Hall on Tuesday evening, October 22.

During the evening five boys were enrolled into Cubs making a total of 18. They were David Gordon, Tommy Kvanendok, Shawn Ella, Kevin Crocker and Roland Smet.

In a special going up ceremony Robert Reed became a scout with Brian Evans as Scoutmaster this year.

Parents and friends of the Cubs and Scouts were present for the special ceremonies and enjoyed a social time following the meeting.

Rev. Casterus of Bramalea

Presbyterian Church was the guest speaker at Norval Presbyterian Church WMS fall thankoffering meeting held in the church on Tuesday afternoon, October 22. Mrs. Howard Smith was presiding in the absence of the president, Mrs. Lois Reed.

Rev. Casterus gave a very interesting talk about Taiwan and Formosa where he had lived for 30 years. He told about the country and his missionary work with the people. He was introduced by Rev. H. Smith.

The devotion was given by Mrs. Tom McGee and Mrs. Hyatt McClure. Guest soloist was Bonnie Crawford. Mrs. John McClure gave the courtesies.

Following the service a social time was enjoyed in the basement with Mrs. Harold McClure, Mrs. Sam McClure and Mrs. Elmer Carney in charge of the lunch.

Norval Presbyterian Church held their anniversary service on Sunday, October 27 with Rev. Peter Barrow of Knox Presbyterian Church, Georgetown, as the guest minister.

Mrs. Jessie Wicklerink sang "The Lord is My Shepherd" and the choir sang "Count Your Blessings" with Mrs. Doris Sharpe as organist and choir leader.

As part of the official opening of "The Garden Market" at Pine Valley Camp, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Crawford Jr. on Highway 7, a Hallowe'en Party was held on Saturday and Sunday, October 26 and 27.

"The Garden Market" is a country store built like a barn near the highway and is the latest addition to the Pine Valley Camp they started about three years ago. They have had a very successful year with the camp.

"The Garden Market" sells mostly the Crawford's home grown produce, specializing in apples. They also have pears, squash, potatoes, Indian corn, gourds, pumpkins, toffee apples and popcorn among the items for sale.

Mr. and Mrs. Crawford were assisted by their three daughters, Kelly, Lane, and Shannon, and other members of the Crawford family during the busy weekend. Also assisting were Randy Fendley, Ed Spence, Donna Ridley, Lee Hutton, Mary Pendergast, and Jill Clifford. All those assisting were dressed in appropriate Hallowe'en costumes which added to the enjoyment of the party.

A good number of children accompanied by their parents enjoyed the fun provided for them including a hay ride, dunking for apples, a drink of witches brew (apple cider) and having their fortunes told.

Many of the guests suggested to the Crawford's that they make this an annual event.

Congratulations to Blair Youmans, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wray Youmans, and Patricia Berneche, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Berneche, of Georgetown, who were married in Norval United Church on Saturday afternoon, October 26.

Also congratulations to Mrs. Mary Kingdon and Robert Davies who were married in Norval Presbyterian Church on Saturday afternoon, October 26. They will reside in Georgetown.

Many people from the Norval area will be interested in the life story of Lucy Maud Montgomery when it is published in 1975 from her diary which she kept for 55 years. Her son Dr. Stuart Macdonald of Toronto has 10 volumes of her diary.

The author of "Anne of Green Gables" and many other books died in 1942.

The family lived in the manse at Norval for several years during the late 20's and 30's when her husband, Rev. Ewan Macdonald, was the minister of Norval and Union Presbyterian Churches. They had two sons, Chester and Stuart who attended Norval Public School and later private schools and university. Chester, a Queen's Council lawyer, died a few years ago.

A highlight of programs presented during their time in Norval were stories told by L. M. Montgomery. She would hold the audience spell bound. One very interesting story that she told was the story of the Marco Polo, the boat that was wrecked off the shores of Prince Edward Island.

Mrs. Murray Laird and Keith Webb of Norval are relatives of the late author.

St. John's United Church scene of thankoffering

The Thank Offering meeting of St. John's United Church, Georgetown, was held in the Church Hall.

Mrs. June Evans, president of the U.C.W. welcomed members and visitors. Mrs. Fran Crichton read the Scripture from the fifth chapter of Luke, and Mrs. Marjorie Shrubsole read a poem "Concern" relating to the Scripture.

David Shrubsole accompanied by Mrs. Marjorie French, on the piano, sang "I'd rather have Jesus". Mrs. Shrubsole gave a few words of thought, re "Concern" of people in far away countries, as well as in our own neighborhoods, who are in need of food and clothing. Mrs. Ismay Bird introduced the guest speaker, Rev. Bernard Warren, resident director of Bezac Centre near Campbellville, where people may go for counselling, fellowship and study. He gave an interesting excerpt in the founding of Bezac by relating his own life and new found faith.

A question period followed and praise was given to Mrs. Warren for her endurance and patience in working along with her husband in this important work over the last four years. Interest was expressed in visiting the Centre.

Mrs. Shirley Gray thanked Mr. Warren and to those who decorated the Hall.

Telephone Talk

by Bill Barnes your Bell manager

You may be aware that Bell Canada is initiating directory assistance charging in the Georgetown exchange area, starting November 3, 1974.

I thought it might be helpful to review the plan and to stress that no one need ever incur an unnecessary charge. Most people use Directory Assistance (411) only as a last resort, when the phone number they need is not yet listed in their directory. These necessary requests will continue to be free. It's the unnecessary calls we want to discourage to ensure reliable "411" service for those who really need it.

That's why, beginning November 3, 1974, there will be a 25 cent charge for each phone number provided by a directory assistance operator when the requested number is listed in your phone book. Every month, the first three such requests made from your residence phone will be free. After that, the charge will apply.

Necessary calls, for numbers not yet listed in your directory will still be free. And whether the number is listed or not, there will be no charge for anyone who has a handicap that makes it difficult to use a directory or for persons 65 years or over.

If you qualify for an exemption, just call your Bell Canada business office and ask for a special exemption form. Also free are emergency calls from pay phones, hotel, motel and hospital rooms.

In closing, I'd just like to repeat that you can avoid unnecessary directory assistance charges by looking in the book before calling 411. The number you need is probably listed. (In 1973, our directory assistance operators handled more than 220 million calls—more than 70 per cent of them were for numbers already listed in the phone book.)

It's also a good idea to keep emergency and frequently called numbers up-to-date in the space provided in the introductory pages of your directory.
