If you were somewhere else last night and missed the news on television—tough luck! As you know, it's not replayed for late arrivals.

Television and radio miss a lot of local news reporting, compared to newspapers. Your local newspaper's prime reason for being is to present the news with strong emphasis on local news.

Newspapers are local. Your local newspaper is the news source with maximum local identification and maximum coverage.

MEMORIALS

DUNLOP—In loving memory of a dear wife and mother, Janet Mary, who passed away December 9, 1972. Remember me when I am gone away. Gone far away into the silent land; When you can no more hold me by the hand, Nor I half turn to go yet turning stay. Remember me when no more, You tell me of our future that you planned: Only remember me; you understand. It will be late to counsel then or pray, Yet if you should forget me for a while And afterwards remember, do not grieve: For if the darkness and corruption leave A vestige of the thoughts that once I had, Better by far you should forget and smile Than that you should remember and be sad. —Sadly missed by husband Jim, son Blair and daughter Nancy.

NORTON—In loving memory of our son Lance Shandooch, who died December 9, 1970. Four years ago since that sad day, The son we loved was called away. God took him home, it was His will. But in our hearts he liveth still. We miss him dearly it is true. We'll meet him again, someday soon. —Always remembered by Bernice and George Norton and family. 12-11

REID, Dr. Clifford—In loving memory of my dear husband, who passed away December 6, 1971. Wonderful memories woven in gold. This is a picture tenderly held. Deep in my heart a memory is kept. To love, to cherish, to never forget. —Sadly missed by wife Vera

STAMP—In loving memory of a dear mother and grandmother, Mary Elizabeth Stamp, who passed away November 28, 1973. Ever remembered by son Joe, Dorothy and family.
