MEMBERS of the Georgetown Fire Department took part in Santa's parade to entertain the thousands of children along the mile long parade route.

Firemen, majorettes signal Santa

JUST along for the ride best describes this clown as he took up the rear at the Santa Claus parade.

THE "LITTLE Drummer Boy" made it the whole two and a half mile route, but he's getting a little weary towards the end.

THIS CHARMING little lass from the Georgetown Majorettes and Drum Corps was well dressed for the nippy weather.

Rebels dropped by Oakville

The GDHS Junior Rebels lost an exhibition basketball game 56-38 to Queen Elizabeth High School of Oakville last Monday afternoon. For the Juniors, according to coach Murray Hall, it was a disappointing performance.

High men, for GDHS were James Lawson with 11 points, and Phil Henlev with 8. The

Campers enjoy

"Tis the season to be jolly" says the old carol, and members and guests of Georgetown Fireflies camping club were just that when they ushered in the yuletide with their annual party at Ballinacree Hall, Saturday night.

Queen Elizabeth top gun was Tony Niovielli who netted 15 points.
