There are a number of ways to convert an ordinary cup of coffee into an unusual taste treat. In fact, there are a number of ways to serve coffee so that it takes on an appealing new look.

These recipes from the kitchens of Corning Glass Works — Mocha Topped, Café Royal and Greb's Grog — are just three suggestions to add unusual zest to the next party where you will be serving coffee.

MOCHA TOPPED
2½ cups cold strong coffee
5 tablespoons chocolate
2 cups vanilla ice cream
Place all ingredients in bowl and blend with rotary beater or wire whip or in blender until smooth. Pour into tall glasses. Serves four.

CAFÉ ROYAL
3 eggs, chilled
grated peel of ¼ lemon
¼ cup sugar
1½ cups cold strong coffee
½ cup cognac or brandy
Break eggs into blender, add lemon peel and beat until fluffy. Add sugar, beat until thick. Add coffee, then cognac. Serve in brandy snifters. Serves four.

GREB'S GROG
Peel of 1 orange (cut in strips)
Peel of 1 lemon (cut in strips)
4 cinnamon sticks (each 3 inches long)
1½ teaspoons whole cloves
½ cup sugar
4 ounces chocolate
2 quarts strong coffee
½ teaspoon anise flavoring
Vanilla ice cream or whipped cream
Combine all ingredients in chafing dish or saucepan. Steep over very low heat 15 minutes (do not boil). Fill cups or small mugs two-thirds full of brew. Float vanilla ice cream (or whipped cream) on top. Makes 12 half-cup servings.

Corning Glass Works, manufacturer of a wide variety of electric and non-electric coffeemakers — ideal for gifts — recommends that homemakers follow these simple rules for brewing better coffee:
1. Start with a thoroughly clean coffeemaker.
2. Use fresh coffee (a supply of coffee should not last longer than one week).
3. Start with fresh, cold water.
4. Use the full capacity of the coffeemaker (never brew less than ¾ of the vessel's capacity).
5. Time the brewing action carefully, following the manufacturer's instructions for the particular coffeemaker.

THINKING BACK
With nostalgia sweeping the country, why not go attic-hunting for Christmas gifts? Memorabilia from the '20s, '30s, '40s and even the '50s, while hardly considered antiques, have become popular. That old cover from a magazine someone in the family forgot to throw out would make an excellent gift when matted and framed.

A-CAROLING WE GO
Music has always played a large part in traditional Christmas festivities. A neighborhood caroling party on Christmas Eve is a happy way to renew acquaintances and spread good cheer.
