FORD—The family of the late Hazel Ford would like to thank their friends and neighbors for their kindness during their recent bereavement. A special thank you to Rev. Harold Martin, Rev. Peter Barrows, and nurses on Wards A and B. —Albert Ford and Family

SNYDER—We wish to sincerely thank friends and relatives for kindnesses and expressions of sympathy extended to us in the loss of our beloved wife and mother. We are grateful too, to those who showed kindness to her during her long illness with cards, letters, visits and remembrances. —Norman Snyder, Betty McMurphy.

McCarrison - Reynolds
Mr. and Mrs. John McCarrison of Chatham, Ontario have the honor to announce the marriage of their daughter Karen Frances to Mr. David Robert Reynolds son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reynolds of RR1 Georgetown. The wedding took place Saturday, December 21st, 1974 at 4:30 p.m. at the home of the groom. To be followed later by a dinner and reception at the Royal Canadian Legion.

FORTHCOMING MARRIAGES

Noble-Broomhead
Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Noble are pleased to announce the forthcoming marriage of their daughter Norine Anne to Mr. Michael John Broomhead, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Broomhead. The marriage will take place on Saturday, December 28, 1974, 4 p.m. at Limehouse Presbyterian Church.

Midgets back to form

The old cliché 'up and down like a yo-yo' seems to fit the Al Pillitt Minor Midgets very well. Last week they blew two games, then turned around and not only won this week's encounters, but outscored the opposition 18 to 4 over two games.

Oakville were the visitors on Tuesday and the midgets spotted them the first goal early in the game. Andy Broadbent from Mike Richmond and Randy Bergeron got the locals started and they pumped in nine more goals behind the Oakville goalies before the final buzzer went. Andy Broadbent led with four big goals. Glen Bodnar shot a pair, Randy Bergeron, Greg Schenk, Mike Richmond and Tom Davies added singles. Assists went to Richmond (4), Bergeron (3), Schenk (2), Larry Burns (2), Bodnar, Bob Hill (2), Steve Crossman, and Mike Buck. Glen Toet was in the nets for the win.

The midgets travelled to Chinguacousy on Thursday night and carried on where they left off by bombing the Ching crew 8-3. Brad Miller was the goalie who recorded the win. Goal scorers were Larry Burns with two, Glen Bodnar, Steve Crossman, Mike Richmond, Randy Bergeron and Andy Broadbent.

The emergence of the Bodnar, Schenk, Burns line as a scoring line as well as checking line has taken the pressure off the Bergeron, Richmond, Broadbent line and made for a more versatile team effort. In both wins, the defence played solid, stand-up hockey and were important in the wins. Mike Buck, Tom Davies, Bob Hill, Russ Clarke and Russ Hogan did a good job in checking the opposition forwards coming over the line and moving the puck up to their front men.

IN MEMORIAM

To assist in the research of respiratory diseases, asthma, emphysema, etc., an IN MEMORIAM gift is an everlasting tribute to the memory of your loved one. For further information contact:—The Halton TB and Respiratory Disease Association, 184 Balsam Drive, Oakville, Ontario

'Before' is right time

That little ball of fluff with a red ribbon around its neck scrambling around the base of the Christmas tree looks adorable.

But that scrambling could signify a terrified puppy or an hysterical kitten.

Pets are traditional gifts for children, but they should be given before Christmas Day so they do not have to compete for attention. The excitement of this special day runs high, and children are often unwittingly thoughtless with a new live animal.

Prepare your child well in advance for the pet that is to share his life. Instruct the child on how to care for the pet.

Take your child along to help pick out his new friend. Many times a parent's background intrudes and the "wrong" breed is chosen. Maybe Dad grew up with a Great Dane, but Junior would prefer a poodle. Remember, it's your child's pet.
