CAROLYN HARRISON was presented with the most improved swimmer award at the Annual Lion's Club Banquet held recently.

ERIC FOBERT, who has been named the tournament MVP in the last two competitions, involved in, tries a hold on team coach Lew Martin.

Carolyn town's top

Thirteen-year-old Carolyn Harrison, 112 Dehrex Blvd., was presented with the Ed Pries Memorial Trophy as the past year's most improved swimmer at the Lion's Club banquet last Tuesday.
 Lion, Don Gosling, made the presentation to Carolyn, who has been involved in the Lion's Club Pool activities since she was six. The trophy is awarded annually and is in memory of Mr. Ed Pries, who, as a Lion Club member was in charge of the pool for a number of years.
 This past summer, Carolyn took on the difficult task of trying to pass both her Intermediate and Senior swim courses. She successfully completed both courses and this feat, in the eyes of the Lion's award group, earned her the trophy.
 Carolyn is not interested in the competitive aspect of swimming, rather she would prefer working towards becoming a swimming instructor or lifeguard for future summer employment. Next summer she plans on taking tests for her Bronze Medal but realizes it will take at least three to four more years before her goal in swimming is reached. As noted by her accomplishments to date, she is a very determined young lady and, aside from her interest in swimming, plans to make medicine her career.
