

Long distance help

A caring family in Limehouse is going to help a young boy struggle through an uncertain life in Indonesia. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Nielsen have "adopted", through the Foster Parents Plan of Canada, six-year-old Ismiyanto of Yogyakarta.

Through the Nielsens' monthly contribution of $17, material and financial assistance will be on their way to assist both the young child and his family. Without the assistance, life could be bleak for Ismiyanto.

According to correspondence from the Foster Plan organization the child and his 18-year-old sister were left with their grandparents when their parents left two years ago. The 81-year-old grandfather has a total income of approximately $3.44 per month of which they have to spend $3.63 per month on food, $2.42 on school expenses and $1.21 on some other daily needs. The total expenses of the family comes to about $7.26 per month.

The family tries to overcome the deficit by selling items or just borrowing from their neighbors.

They live in their own home. It's a bamboo house measuring just over four-foot square. The floor is partly tiled and partly dirt. The furniture consists of four tables, four chairs, two cupboards and three divans.

The family's possessions consist of a bicycle, gas lamp and one radio. As well they have two cows, four goats and 10 chickens to tend.

$1,000

A bingo-pay-off made Mrs. Audrey Williams of Glen Williams, $1000 richer in the Bingo last week at the International Centre in Malton. "I was waiting for B-3," she recalled.

It was the first time Mrs. Williams had won a large jackpot without splitting it with other winners in the few times she has won in the past.

"They presented the money in cash, and now it's in the bank," she said.
