The second step of the "Four Steps to Stardom" championships begins this weekend when Youth Bowlers from all over Zone "F" will compete in the Zone Finals. These finals will be held over the next two weekends, starting in Port Credit and Brampton this Saturday and Sunday, continuing the following Saturday in Streetsville, and finishing off here in Georgetown on Sunday, February 23.

On the first Saturday, all Bantam Girls and Boys teams will meet at Village Bowl in Port Credit, with the girls bowling at noon and the boys taking over at 2:45 p.m.

Sunday at Crystal Bowl in Brampton, all Junior Girls teams will bowl at 10 a.m. while at 1 p.m., the Junior and Bantam Singles competitors will bowl.

Good luck to our representatives from Georgetown Bowl. Let's see some support out there for our teams!

Senior Qualifiers

The Georgetown competitors in the Senior events of the Zone Finals have been decided. The Senior Girls qualifiers in the House Round are Pat Syme, 1,917; Sylvia Heisler, 1,976; Ruth Finlay, 1,841; Yvonne Bratkin, 1,771; Wendy Boukhill, 1,767; and Deenie Bratkin, 1,651. As their scores indicate these girls are first rate bowlers.

Yvonne Bratkin is bowling in the Senior Girls Singles event. Over her many years of YBC bowling, Yvonne has participated in and won a great

AS PART OF THE "Four Steps to Stardom" the Bantam Girls of Georgetown Bowl participated in Saturday's rolloffs. Robin Richardson, Julie Burns, Debbie Scarborough, Donna Herrington (singles) Cathy Coburn and Lisa Burke were coached by Joan Archibald for the games.

Sandra Wilson tops Carling-O'Keefe rolloffs

The Zone "F" rolloffs for the Carling O'Keefe Classic were held this past Sunday at the Georgetown Bowl. This is a unique event in that men and women compete directly, with the top score of either sex taking first place.

Sandra Wilson, of Georgetown who rolled games of 343, 230 and 273 for a triple of 888. Sandra won an eight track stereo tape deck for her efforts. Bill Lewis of Avondale came in second. Gary Palmer of Brampton was

Georgetown skaters pass tests

The Georgetown Figure Skating Club's annual carnival is fast approaching. However, although the young skaters are looking forward to this event, tests still must be taken.

The following youngsters recently passed the quoted tests: Teri Lamb, in the preliminary figures; Shelley Fokkett, Teri Lamb, Jo-Anne Searle and Cathy Smeaton were successful in the Dutch.

The Canasta proved no problem to Daisly Brown and Teri Lamb. Mary Ellison passed her Willow test; Lori Henderson qualified in the Ten-Fox.

In the 14 Step, Charlene Grummett, Sonja Pettinelli and Leslie Pritchard were successful. Kirsten Mogg picked up her European while Cyd Sherry and Laura Yerxa were successful in the Rocker category.

The next test days will be February 18 and 19 at Port Credit.
