Two new Auxiliary members

By Roma Timpson
A busy past weekend with the Lounge filled on Friday, a pretty good crowd upstairs on Saturday evening...

March 25 (a Tuesday) is our turn to help with the hockey tournament meals, 9.30 to 1.30 the first shift and 2 to 6 the second shift...

received the news that Don Wilkes had passed away and it was indeed a shock. We go back many years with Don and his family as a lot of you do.

early. If you have a planter six inches deep and can accommodate several of six inches apart, you will be in the Golden Tulip flower business.

DALE RICHARDSON and leander Dave Lawrence show many of the parents who visited the open house held at Stewarttown Senior Public School that education is more than reading, writing and arithmetic. Here they show some of their efforts in the woodworking class.

Leo Jamieson returns home

Sam Snow and Gordon Kirkwood are both recovering from minor surgery at Guelph General Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Robert McEnery are also progressing very favorably and are expected to be able to return home shortly.

gave the devotional which was based on "Forgiveness." The topic of world missions was given by Grace McEnery. She pointed out that people in foreign lands were eager for missionaries to teach them the modern ways of doing things, to enlighten them on many aspects of life as well as to teach them the Gospel.

celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary on March 15. They had asked the UCW to cater for the reception which will be held at the Masonic Hall on the Seventh Line. All agreed to do this and voted that the proceeds from the catering should be sent to Rev. Jim and Mrs. Kirkwood to help with their work in Rhodesia.

The Ballinafad UCW held its February meeting at the home of Evelyn Snow. Mrs. Black copies of the new Book of Praise at Sunday's service. The clerk of session, A.C. Patterson, presented them on behalf of the congregation.

Fletcher's Orchestra delighted all those attending the dance at the community centre Saturday night. The crowd was not as large as usual but it was still a success. It was sponsored by the hall board.

Activities galore in Limehouse

We wish a speedy recovery for Mrs. James Brown who underwent surgery in hospital in Brampton a week ago.

We extend sympathy to Mrs. Turner and family and Mrs. Kirkpatrick on the passing of Mr. Ralph Turner in hospital in Toronto on the weekend.

The first two meetings of the Ballinafad 1st '4-H Home-Makers, "Pins and Needles", were held at the Ballinafad Community Hall. The election of officers was held at the meeting on Thursday evening.

The local committee met at the home of Lorna Thompson on February 10 with 12 attending. Plans were discussed for the spring musicale and the Guides' and Brownies' summer camp at Camp Wyoka at Clifford.

While on a boat to coast business trip Eef Hoedemaker of Vancouver stopped off with his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Booth, for the weekend.

We had a good turnout for our special auxiliary meeting with 57 present. We were happy to welcome into the membership, Mary Bower and Crystal Thorogood and hope that they will take part in the social, sport and also the work area of our Auxiliary.

The Scouts had a fun evening last week when they and their leaders went to the Action swimming pool in place of their regular meeting.

The February meeting of Limehouse Group Committee was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugo DeWinter. Five fathers and three mothers were present. It was reported that the ductwork has not been installed in the Scout Hut.

On Wednesday, March 12, there will be a Father-Son Scout banquet. Please offer your help to Jessie Hayes or Jane Kirby, so they won't be short handed. Tables need to be set, vegetables prepared, serving on tables and dishes to be done. I have the phone numbers to call.

Limehouse Group Committee sponsored the February euchre in the hall on Friday night. Five tables were in play. The high ladies' prize was won by Bonnie Campbell, the high men's by Cliff McDonald. The low prize was won by L. Lowrey.

Mike Smith has just earned his Readers Badge, Ian Brown the Carpenters badge, Darran Edmundson the House Orderly badge and Ken Thompson the Green Star. Service bars were presented to Akela Steve Thompson for five years and Elaine Hannay for two years. Kevin Forster has earned his House Orderly badge too.
