

Hunters

Halton Hills will be cutting down severely on the number of hunters prowling the countryside this hunting season. Clerk-administrator Doug Pritchard is in the midst of revising a bylaw covering both the issuance of non-resident licences as well as where hunting will be allowed in the town.

Milton's new, non-resident hunting bylaw will likely be used in drawing up Halton Hills' bylaw. It's one of the latest municipal hunting bylaws to be approved by the province and prohibits hunting in built-up areas such as Milton and Campbellville.

The same limitations should be placed upon built-up areas in Halton Hills. Councillor Harry Levy commented at last week's finance and personnel committee meeting. The list of covered areas, he suggested, should not only include Georgetown and Acton but hamlets and villages such as Ballinacree, Glen Williams, Norval, Stewarttown and Speyside.

Councillor Russ Miller also called for a limit on the number of non-resident licences issued. It was suggested that the bylaw only allow 200 licences to be issued to non-residents, a sharp drop from the approximately 1,500 issued last year in Halton Hills.

Spring arrives in style, and fashion

The latest spring fashions by Bettanne will be on parade tonight at 8 o'clock in St. Andrew's Church on Mountview Rd. The 9th Georgetown Brownie Pack Mothers' Group planned the show as a fund-raising project to assist in the Brownies' activities. Part of the proceeds will go to a charity chosen by the Brownies.

The audience will be entertained by the Brownies from 7:30 'til show time and at intermission. Flowers for the stage are being supplied by Mr. Webb, Norval. Refreshments will be served by the Brownies' mothers.

Help them help

March is Red Cross Month in Canada, the time when the Canadian Red Cross makes its annual appeal for funds. Canvassers, 16 years or older, are urgently needed for this campaign. Be a good citizen, volunteer as a canvasser for the Red Cross in our community. The more canvassers there are, the less time and effort it will take to meet this year's objective. Help spread the work load.

Art show

A general meeting of the Georgetown Palette and Pencil Club was held at Centennial School recently. Plans for the ninth annual spring show and sale of art were discussed during the meeting. As yet a definite date and place have not been set for the show.

Mr. Frank Black, a well known local artist, presented a demonstration to the club on perspective.

Membership in the club is now open, owing to the departure of several members to other parts of the country. Anyone who has a talent for drawing, water colors or, for that matter, any art medium at all will be welcome. They must however, be over 18 years old. If you're interested in the palette and pencil club contact either Ellen Melton president of the club, at 877-8082 or Bart Scull at 877-3777.
