

ABOUT 610 NEWFOUNDLANDERS and their friends celebrated the "Wearin' of the Green" Saturday night at the Riviera Club in Norval. The enthusiastic crowd spilled over into the balcony where dozens of couples could watch the dancing below. The whole place was jumping to the music of The Last Beatnik, a group from Galt. A large, fluffy stuffed lion was raffled off and roast beef sandwiches were served at intermission.

"T'WAS A GREAT DAY for the Irish Saturday night when 75 couples danced 'til one in the morning to the music of the Shayoes in Holy Cross School auditorium. The dance was sponsored by the Knights of Columbus to promote their charity work in Georgetown, and entertainment director, Jim Clarke said the group was pleased with the turnout.

The "Kopy Kats" did it again

By Roma Timpson

Friday evening was well attended by close to 100 workers of the plowing match, their wives and husbands. Jimmy Meekison and his wife supplied the music for dancing and the selections played seemed to please everyone as we never stopped dancing. A terrific buffet was served. (The pickles were excellent) Chubby).

During the evening Norm Ward thanked all who had worked, giving special thanks to Bob Burns who ran the plowing match affair and Hazel Dumper who looked after the catering. We also helped Norm Ward celebrate his birthday on Friday. A very fine evening, enjoyed by all.

As I predicted the Imperial Section's Variety and Dance was an outstanding success. The "Blue Chips" a five-piece band from Bramalea, made their first appearance in our hall, and were a hit right from the first note played. At times it was impossible to find a spot on the floor to dance.

Denny Wright, our first vice, was quick to find out if they were booked for New Year's Eve and, lucky for us, they were free, so Denny has them booked for our New Year's Dance.

The entertainment the Imperials provided was excellent. Beginning with The Tykes Brothers, Ernie and Les. All thoroughly enjoyed their humor and songs. What can we say about those "Kopy Kats" that hasn't been said before? Jack Ferguson, Wright, Smith and George Sandifer, took us back many years with their "You're Nobody 'Til Somebody Loves You", "San Francisco Bay Blues", "Oh Mamma", "The Butcher Bag", "Cab Driver" and "Apple Blossom Time".

"For their encore they sang everyone's favorite "I Remember You". No matter how many times you hear them, they are as enjoyable as the first time.

Jimmy Randell and Irene were celebrating their 24th wedding anniversary on Saturday and Jim had his mother with them. After singing "When Irish Eyes are Smiling" and "Killarney" he dedicated "Silver Haired, Old Lady" to his mom and "Because You're Mine" to Irene. Truly beautiful Jimmy. You can sing to me anytime.

A hot buffet was served and enjoyed by all and Art Lawrence was emcee for the evening. Door prize was won by Andy Syme; one spot dance prize by Dorothy and Denny Wright; draw prizes were won by Doreen Zuber and Monica Smith.

All who planned, organized and worked to make the evening such a tremendous success are to be highly commended. It was gratifying to see so many men take their turn behind the bar, as that can be pretty hectic at times, but everyone seemed eager to pitch in and do their share. Joe Poirier looked after sale of tickets.

Imperial Section held their monthly meeting last Sunday and Tom Must reports the following:

There were 31 in attendance to a very lively meeting, with everyone participating verbally which makes for an interesting meeting. They accepted and welcomed two members, Bill Watson and Bob Rolphe. Joe Ashton (Deputy Zone Commander and District Sports Officer) was a guest.

We're always glad to see Joe up from Brampton Branch. Jim Johnson was also at the meeting and was welcomed by his many friends.

Tom Elliot, who is looking after the Golden Anniversary golden tulips, urges everyone to plan how many bulbs they'll need. Although they come in 100-bulb lots, you don't have to plant all 100 yourself, unless you want too, of course. Get your friends to divide up the 100 bulbs with you.

As long as they are ordered in one name they will come to the branch. You will be notified, then you can divide them with your friends at the appropriate planting time. Call Tom at 877-6302 for order forms and information. Price of $16.00 to accompany order.

Ladies our general meeting is 8 p.m. this Thursday. Again, we ask you, please don't wear slacks. Executive will bring lunch please.

We added Irene Kearns to our list of talented ladies making items for the bazaar. Irene is busy making fancy place mats. Don't forget social in Oakville on Tuesday. Last call. Bus leaves at 7 p.m.

Charlie Day is coming along very well and should be home soon. Wes Brennar is also in hospital. Art Stamp, has volunteered to visit our sick comrades and I appreciate the help.

Lily Maybanks is home from hospital and Arlene Macintosh is expected home shortly.

The up-coming fishing trip, planned for April 26 is for Section members and children. The children must be old enough to handle their own fishing rod. This will take place at Glen Happy at a cost of $1.50 per car. All fishermen must supply their own rods and bait. Leave the branch at 1:30

Rams want you

The Halton Hills Rams are still looking for players for their new, local lacrosse team. Anyone at all interested in the game is welcome and instruction is available, if required. The Rams practise this Thursday night at Stewarttown gym from 7:00 p.m. and urge that all interested youngsters tryout as there are still openings on the team.

Graham Payne is in charge of the trip and he'll be pleased to answer all enquiries at 877-7516.

The prize is a trophy, the John Ferguson Memorial Trophy, for the fisherman who tallies up the highest total weight of catch at the end of the season. Another fishing trip is on Sunday July 13. This trophy, named after comrade John was a most kind and gentlemanly fellow dedicated to family and friends who seemed to go out of his way to please people. Quite a nice gesture, this trophy, fellows.

Tom, commenting on the recent variety dance night when Andy won his beautiful combination lamp, table and magazine rack calls it a "gossip bench," and hopes you are able to glean a lot of gossip from it.

Tom mentions that Frank Bryant and his kitchen crew deserve a lot of credit for the catering job they managed on Saturday and also that more should be heard of the "Kopy Kats". To everyone, thanks for a job well done.

Next Imperial meeting is Sunday, April 27 after which a photographer will be taking a photograph of all members. All members are asked to wear their uniform and wear medals please. There will be color and black and white pictures available, the price is being discussed.

GDHS Juniors out early

After losing their sudden-death Halton County girls' volleyball semi-final last week to Lord Nelson in three games straight, all GDHS Junior Rebellettes coach Mavis O'Neil would say was, "Volleyball for the most part is a psychological game and it's obvious we were psyched out. The girls just didn't play up to potential."

Something was definitely wrong as the Junior Rebellettes were never really a factor in any of the three games. They lost 15-8, 15-5 and, in their worst game of the year, were embarrassed 15-1.

Why the Junior Rebellettes came out flat, is a mystery. They knew that this was their most important match of the year and, similarly, that a loss would end their season. In the warm-up prior to the match, it appeared that the local girls were sky high. They were clapping and encouraging each other, cheering practice spikes and blocks and generally exuding supreme confidence.

Another factor in their favor was that the majority of the spectators in the gym were Georgetown rooters, who cheered the girls' every move. Perhaps they left their game and their spirit in the warm-up because they looked like an entirely different team once play began.

In all three games the Rebellettes were out of contention early. At one point in the first game they were down 11-3, in the second game 9-1 and in the third game 10-1. Their play was negatively highlighted by a definite lack of blocks or spikes and in fact, both teams recorded the majority of their points off serves. Nelson wasn't particularly effective at the net either and, had the Rebellettes taken control of the all important net early on, the outcome could have been reversed.

Coch O'Neil preferred to look at the season as a whole rather than this one match in particular. Last year, the Juniors had a losing record and failed to make the playoffs. This year they finished with a fine 9-2 mark and advanced into post-season play. Still, as Mrs. O'Neil noted, it wasn't a very satisfying way to end an otherwise successful year. When the Juniors regroup next season it is hoped they will remember their performance in this year's semi-final and work towards redeeming themselves.
