

Campers entertain seniors

Residents of Sargent Court, the senior citizens' apartment complex on Sargent Rd., enjoyed three films and refreshments when they were entertained in their common room by Georgetown Fireflies camping club March 18.

Members of the visiting club were introduced by their spokesman, Bill Roden, who acted as master of ceremonies. At the end of the program Mrs. E. Peck thanked the campers and introduced the residents present. Brian and Norma Chadwick arranged the evening, and John Scollick was projectionist.

Georgetown Fireflies are the local chapter of the Canadian Family Camping Federation.

Trip

THE SENIOR CITIZENS of Sargent Road citizens' apartment on Sargent Road. It raised $128 to go on a bus trip this spring hasn't been decided where the group will go thanks to a rummage sale held at the senior but the suggestions are many.

WI members hear of women's place in the law

Meeting number five of the Ballinafad "Pins and Needles" took place on March 13 at the community centre. The girls made plans for Achievement Day which will be on May 24. A dress review was planned.

Marion Jamieson demonstrated the correct way to put in garters and it was practised by the girls. There were eight members present. Next meeting will be on April 3.

Mr. and Mrs. George Black attended the graduating ceremony on Thursday of last week, in which a large number of graduating lawyers were called to the bar. Their son Douglas was among those graduating.

All set to unfold tent

The Hungry Hollow Hobos saw their first robin for 1975 last Wednesday.

The bird unfortunately did not appear in person but was part of the Audubon film that closed their annual meeting.

Officers elected for the year are presidents, Joyce and Al Rye with vice-presidents, Doug and Sadie Horne. Secretary-treasurers are Bob and Jackie Morrow.

Plans for the year include many camping expeditions throughout the season and tours for times when the weather is not at its best for nature outings.

The Hungry Hollow Hobos are members of the National Campers and Hikers Association which has over 2,100 participating members in Ontario and a membership of 73 chapters.

Present at the meeting were: Doug and Sadie Horne, Keith and Norma Arlurton, Ray and Carol Hall, Al and Joyce Rye, Bob and Jackie Morrow and guests, Maurice and Marjorie Staley, Lou Ward, and Roger and Ruth Fischer.

Field director, Joe Lawley and his wife Phyllis were present to represent the NCHA. Memberships are still open for the family camping club and further information can be obtained from any of the members or by calling 877-6220.

discussion took place dealing with different aspects of the law as it now stands and how they might be reformed.

Mrs. Doris McNab was called upon to introduce the guest speaker, Miss E. Robson, who graduated as a lawyer from McMaster University. She informed her many listeners of cases of various kinds she had dealt with daily in her work as a solicitor. After the talk she invited questions from the audience which she answered freely.

Mrs. Jamieson, president of Halton District WI, thanked Miss Robson and she was presented with a gift. Silverwood WI was in charge of refreshments and a social time followed.

Mrs. Wilfred Burt and her mother attended the farewell concert of the Eramosa Choral Society at Guelph Sunday evening. It was held at Trinity United Church where a large crowd was in attendance to enjoy the many selections given by this talented group of young people. They leave for a tour of called. The candles were placed around a large lighted candle at the base of the cross. Before placing the candle each quoted a verse of scripture.

The president, Mrs. Ernest McEmery opened the meeting by reading "Thoughts on Easter." Mrs. Joyce Clarke had charge of the devotions which carried on the Easter theme and were very impressive. She had each one light a candle as her name was is to be given, along with another one, to a needy family.

A committee was appointed to look after the purchase of a new stair carpet and floor covering for the entrance to the church. There was quite a discussion on how best to commemorate the 50th anniversary of church union which comes up in June. Many catering jobs were reported to be coming up in the near future.

A letter was read from Hamilton Presbytery saying farewell to the Ballinafad Charge as they are now associated with the Peel and Dufferin Presbytery. Mrs. Norman Sinclair gave an interesting report on the spring annual she recently attended at the presbytery. Four other members also attended.

The topic was given by Mrs. Larose and it dealt with customs of different countries pertaining to Easter. Mrs. Volmar and Mrs. Schwarz assisted the hostess with the serving of a delicious lunch.

Two new Cubs join Limehouse Pack

The Pattersons visited with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sinclair in Welland for several days last week.

We hope that Mrs. Glen Scott may make a good recovery from phlebitis in hospital in Guelph where she is being treated.

The Limehouse WMS met at the home of Mrs. W. Kirkwood on Wednesday evening.

President, Mrs. Roughley opened by reading a poem titled "Life." The Glad Tidings Easter program followed. Mr. Roughley was the lead reader and Mrs. Patterson read scripture passages. Plans were discussed for the opening thanksgiving meeting in the church at 2:30 on April 20 when Mrs. R.C. Moffat of Guelph will speak and play her hand bells. All visitors will be welcomed.

Roll call was answered with a verse of scripture and text word was "oil". Each lady read an interesting current event. Miss Kiven Kirkwood played two appreciated piano solos and assisted her mother in serving a lovely lunch. Last week at the Cub meeting, Tom Ruggie and Dan Stewart were invested into the World-Wide Brotherhood of Scouting. Their mothers attended the meeting and had the honor of presenting the scarves to the boys. Coffee was served during the meeting.

Three boys have received their House Orderly badges: Ken Thompson, Eddie Galliford and Warren Somers. Saturday, six Cubs attended the annual Resource Conference for nine-year-old Cubs. It was held at George Kennedy School in Georgetown from 9:30 to 4:00. The highlight was a visit by Mr. Watermann from Glen Williams who brought his golden eagle and a screech owl to show the boys. He also showed slides and talked about his work at the Toronto airport trapping birds. The rest of the day the boys spent learning about physics, birds eggs, Canadian Catholic Organization for development, rock climbing, stamps, and Peace. Father Laurent Levesque of Sacre Coeur Church acted as host for the occasion and pronounced the benediction.

Held at Sacre Coeur Unity service

A service of Christian Unity was held in Sacre Coeur Catholic Church on Palm Sunday evening with approximately 100 in attendance.

This was the second year in which the Georgetown Ministerial Association has sponsored an annual service of unity.

The theme of this year's service was "Reconciliation." A dialogue between Mr. Edward Brennan of St. Andrew's United Church and Mr. Dick Perrot of Holy Cross Roman Catholic Church stressed the necessity of reconciliation between members and denominations in

"Miracle" group's donation arrived

President Luise Arts presided over the Catholic Women's League's March meeting which began with a Mass conducted by Fr. Devent, thus fulfilling the obligation of one Mass per month during the Holy Year.

Anne Whitehead reported a financial loss on the February pollock supper and dance but this was more than compensated for by the good time had by all couples who attended this free evening.

Heart-warming letters were read from Sister Doan th Khen, who runs the Go-vap Orphanage in South Vietnam, thanking the league for the $500 bank draft. The money was used for buying rice and arrived just at the time when she didn't know how they were going to survive. Sister Doan says their greatest need now is for light weight clothing and penicillin.

She says the fighting is getting very close to them and the children are fearful of living under the Communists. They are always asking why they can't go and live in a peaceful country like Canada? Under these conditions she considers it a miracle that the parcels and money are still getting through to her.

It was decided to send $200 to the Coody Institute National Scholarship Fund to which the Catholic Women's League of Canada has made a commitment of $5,000. This program draws students from 66 countries around the world and sends them back equipped to help solve social, political and cultural problems by teaching others.

A proposed daytime tour of the OCEA Channel 19 television studio on April 7 was cancelled due to the fact that the separate schools will be on their spring break.

A weekend retreat for high school girls at Mount Cenacle in Hamilton will be supported by a $50 donation from the League. Sienna Van Hoekeken offered to convene a tea-room at the Arts and Crafts Show on April 19 and also a wedding on June 23.

A number of couples from the parish have recently spent the weekend at a Marriage Encounter which is designed to strengthen an already good marriage by promoting communication between spouses. Kathy Papenhyzen gave an enthusiastic report on the one she attended and urged all members to put it at the top of their priority list.

Dorothy Bergmann agreed to read through a number of resolutions on which our delegates will be asked to vote at the Diocesan Convention in May. Those which she considers to be of interest and concern to our council will be discussed at the next meeting.

Completed nomination forms were given to committee member Trudy Klein. A wine and cheese party, organized by Noreen Mieh, will follow the election of officers at the April meeting.
