

Quality high at Folk Three

ALISON AND BEV VICKERY won first prize in the duet category at Folk Three. Entrants were marked on instrumental proficiency, vocal proficiency, originality, stage presentation, vocal and instrumental balance and general reaction.

Talented high school students from all over Ontario assembled last week end for the third annual Ontario-Wide Folk Music Competition-Folk Three-held in Georgetown District High School.

Students came from as far away as Sloux Lookout to enter the contest that offered $1,000 in prizes.

Jim Broughton, organizer of the event was kept busy during the two days of the competition arranging billeting for the out of town guests and establishing timetables for the performances and elimination rounds.

Assisting as hosts and hostesses were: Paul McGrath, Steve Harlow, Peter Millesse, Mike Dobson, Andrea Knospek, Mrs. Glenda McKay, Monica Drishler, Linda Finney, Karen Hillier, Sharon Moores, Cherise Lacoursiere, Trudy Pech, Leslie Sugg, Jennifer Griffiths and Sheila Rafterly.

The technical crew of John Hayes, Jim Lynch, Mike Hastings, Jim Coles, Pat Schanks, Brian Smith, Peter Wolfe, Les Sykes and Villem Teder provided sound reinforcement and lighting for the performers.

Winners from Georgetown were Bev and Alison Vickery in the duet competition, Laurie Rouse in the solos and Monica Thorne and Laurie Rouse in the duets.

A special guest appearance by "Sage" of Georgetown past winner of the Kawartha Folk Festival entertained the large audience on hand for the finals Saturday evening.

Friday evening's entertainment drifted off the folk theme slightly to include Georgetown's own "Grease" rock band, the "Rocket Sha Booms," featuring music of the '50's. In the group are Mike "Rocket" Reid, Raymond Hayes, Calvin Unterlitz, Johnny Robbins, Kevin Holgate, Scott Mason, John Burt, Todd "Frac" Frenette, Gary Taylor and Stew Corbett.

ROCK AND ROLL IS HERE TO STAY. The topic of folk music drifted off course as Georgetown's own 'Rocket Sha Boom,' 1950's rock group provided added entertainment to the large crowd on hand for Folk Three.

VILLEM TEDER AND LES SYKES aided in setting up microphones for each of the many performers that appeared over the two days of the competition.

MIKE "ROCKET" REID dominates centre stage as the sounds of the 50's are revisited in the presentation of the "Rocket Sha Booms." The group also includes Raymond Hayes, Calvin Unterlitz, Johnny Robbins, Kevin Holgate, Scott Mason, John Burt, Todd Frenette, Gary Taylor and Stew Corbett.
