Evans, regent; Mrs. J. Turnbull, standard bearer; Miss Helen MacDonald, secretary; Mrs. G. McGilvary, public relations. Missing from the picture is Mrs. A. Dean, 1st vice-regent.

Norval ratepayers' executive elected

By Dorothy McLean
The annual meeting of Norval Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Giselle Matchin on Thursday evening, April 10, having been postponed from the previous Thursday due to the spring blizzard.

Mrs. Ina Terry presided with 18 members and two visitors present. The roll call was answered with the payment of fees and one new member joined making a total of 19 members.

Mrs. Terry gave a report of the district directors' meeting and gave the plans for the district annual meeting to be held in Milton on May 21. Plans were made for Summary Day for the short course "Baked In A Pie", and for the short course on "The Main Dish Makes The Meal."

Yearly reports were given by the various convenors and Mrs. Jean Harrop presented the state of officers from the nominating committee. Mrs. Joe Murray took the chair for the installation of the officers: president, Mrs. Amy Burk; first vice-president, Mrs. Ethel Webb; second vice-president, Mrs. Edna Murray; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Kathy Chester; district director, Mrs. Ina Terry; alternate Mrs. Gladys Chester.

Mrs. Babs Caseley presented Mrs. Terry with a gift and thanked her for being an excellent president for the past two years.

Mrs. Elliott conducted a scrambled letter, shopping list contest with Mrs. Jean May the winner. Mrs. Jean Harrop and Mrs. Kathy Chester assisted the hostess in serving lunch and a social time was enjoyed.

Rev. Alex. Cowan of Brampton, area representative for the Georgian Bay District of the Canadian Bible Society, showed slides of his trip last year to Asia, to see the work of the Bible Society overseas, at a meeting of Units One and Two of the Norval United Church Women, held in the church on Wednesday evening April 9. Others from the church were invited to attend to hear Rev. Cowan. He showed slides of Honolulu, Japan, Korea, Hong Kong, Malasia, Thailand, and India. He returned home via Greece and Europe so had a trip all around the world. His topic was "Around the World with the Bible Society."

Mrs. Rosie Laidlaw presided for a short business meeting during which plans were made for a bridal shower. It was decided to give a donation to Cedar Glen.

Mrs. Betty Johnson led in prayer, Mrs. Lois Reid gave the scripture reading, Mrs. Jean Reid read a poem, and Mrs. Glen Laidlaw sang a solo accompanied by Mrs. Elaine Crawford.

Mrs. Dorothy McLean introduced Rev. Cowan, a former minister of the church, and all enjoyed his excellent slides. Mrs. Glen Laidlaw gave the courtesies. The collection was donated to the Canadian Bible Society.

Following the meeting Unit One served lunch and a social time was enjoyed.

At the Norval Community Association executive meeting held in Norval United Church on Monday evening, April 7, Hugh McFarlane, president, named the state of officers which passed unanimously. They are: first vice-president, Pat Patterson; secretary, Mrs. Pearl Guthrie; treasurer, Mrs. Marie Carney. Mr. McFarlane was appointed president at a public meeting in the late fall when the other members of the executive were appointed.

The constitution will be presented at a public meeting to be held in St. Paul's Anglican Church Parish Hall on Tuesday evening, April 15 when it is hoped a good number will join the association.

Norval Presbyterian Church celebrated the centennial of the Presbyterian Church in Canada on Sunday afternoon, April 13 when a capacity crowd attended an excellent program of music presented by the 40-voice ladies' choir the "Milton Chansonettes", with Mrs. Judy Hunter as director and Win Newell as accompanist.

Bill Brush of Milton was guest soloist and sang four selections during the program Mrs. Judy Hunter also sang a couple of solos, and was joined by a choir member for a duet. Mrs. Kay Foster played two selections on her violin accompanied by Mrs. Helen McNeil.

The program opened with a group of religious songs with "One Tin Soldier" especially enjoyed. The "Fantasy on Nursery Rhymes", dedicated to the children in the audience, was much enjoyed by the older folk too. Songs from "South Pacific" were excellent, and the program ended with "The Lord's My Shepherd."

The choir were well trained and gave a lively and enjoyable program with an excellent choice of songs. The members were wearing new, long, soft green dresses with silver shoes. They presented a pleasing picture as well as a pleasing musical program.

Records made by the group were available to purchase in the basement. The group left Norval to go to the Halton Museum to have their picture taken among Christmas

Pet Please

Smile!! You're on Pet Please. This three-month-old wire-haired Terrier doesn't seem too pleased about her present situation. You can help, perhaps, put a smile on her face by offering her a home. This brown and white Terrier can be seen at the Limehouse offices of the Halton Hills Animal Control Services to 8 p.m. Monday to Friday or between 1 and 3 p.m. Saturday.

Pet Please is a regular feature of the Herald in conjunction with the Halton Hills Animal Control Service staff.

1,600 attend Jehovah's Witnesses assembly

"Mankind is rightfully concerned about the future; many leading experts warn that the human race may be killed off as a result of their own weighty problems; overpopulation, famine, pollution and international wars," stated Keith McCann, District Supervisor of Jehovah's Witnesses.

Mr. McCann's Sunday discourse, entitled "Stand Still and See the Salvation of Jehovah", was attended by 1,635 persons.

The theme of the assembly, held April 12 and 13 in the newly constructed Assembly Hall at Norval was "Have we kept our senses and been watchful?"

Mr. McCann stated, "The Bible says the end will come at God's hand by the war of the great day of God the Almighty."

assembly impressed upon each one the importance of putting his complete trust and confidence in God, especially as world conditions worsen.

Another highlight came Sunday when 30 new ministers were baptized by water immersion.

Mr. T. Oxenham, local presiding minister, felt the received support for a sign change on the highway.

But what to say? Councillor Les Doby wanted to make sure that both Acton and Georgetown are mentioned on the new sign. A logical solution, it was mentioned, would be "Halton Hills (Formerly Acton-Georgetown)".

At the prodding of Councillor Dick Howitt and Mayor Tom Hill, Halton Hills' presence will soon be recognized on a sign on Highway 401. Present

Mayor Hill told town council that following a recent meeting with John Rhodes minister of transportation and communications, he had Halton Hills has put a mild type freeze on new building in Georgetown until a contract for the addition to the town's sewage treatment plant is released. That, it's expected, will take place this September.

issued until a contract for the addition is let. Councillors later explained that the freeze will not apply to permits for individual single family dwellings but, instead, to large subdivisions which had not, prior to Tuesday evening, been registered with the ministry of the environment or received approval from the town.

Councillor Ern Sykes commented, "It's not that we're against housing. We just have no capacity."
