TOWN OKAYS TENNIS COURTS
It was approved at the General Administration Committee meeting, Monday night, to tender the construction of tennis courts on the site of the Gordon Alcott Memorial Arena.
Doug Collinson, recreation director of Halton Hills, had received and approved specs, drawn up by the executives of the Georgetown Tennis Club of the new courts.
It was recommended at the meeting that the engineering department draw up and supervise the actual tender forms.
The forms are for the construction of four tennis courts. The Georgetown Tennis Club would be willing to rent back the courts from the town. The club stated that they would assume responsibility of the courts' maintenance. They also indicated they wanted public playing times made available.
