Kinsmen Girls Softball wrap-up

Neilson's, 11 - Standard Products, 9

This was a close game from start to finish. No home runs but Joanne Hillier of Neilson's hit two triples.

Standard Products had their big inning in the fourth. Neilson's managed to pull off five runs in the fifth to lead the game by three. All of Standard's efforts managed to narrow the difference by two. Monica Pollok's playing as shortstop helped Neilson's to their victory. Game stars were Cathy Crawley and April Sacco. Pitchers were Wendy Bouskill and April Sacco.

Varian, 25 vs Foberts, 12

Batting for Varian's homers were Nancy Leider, Joan Gilmer and Leanne Storch. Fobert's home run hitter was Chris Girardi. Although Wanda Rodgers didn't have a home run she was four for four at bat. Wanda gave it her all, especially at shortstop. Darn those tight pants. A good catch out in field by Jane Gilmour earned her mention in the game.

Game stars were Debbie Ford and Jane Gilmer who both hurried at the mound. Silvana Girardi also aided in throwing them across the plate.

Blue Giants, 14 vs Magnuson's, 11

Blue Giants' big lead came in the fourth with ten runs. No matter how hard Magnuson's tried they couldn't catch up. Debbie Borland, the second base player for Magnuson's, made a fantastic catch that helped her team shorten the difference.

Home runs were earned by Linda George, Noreen

Atkinson and Elaine Bastedo. Cathy Elallger earned half the star for her pitching and Laura Russell deserved the other half for catching behind the plate. Pitcher for Magnuson's was Lori Worrall.

Cable Jets, 25 vs Youngs, 14

The game was close until the third inning when the Jets sent seven players right around the bases. The opposition for Youngs seemed too much so they decided to pull up their socks by bringing in seven runs. The Pharmacists were only too late and had to suffer the consequences of losing.

Good plays were made by Colleen Sunnucks and Cathy Harris of Cable Jets. Home runs came off the bats of Sharon Greenalade, Janet Ollivier and Clare Carter. Brenda Fournier of Youngs didn't hit a home run but had a full night at bat.

Pitchers were Shelly Perkins for the Jets and Ginny Wilkes and Melanie Harris for Youngs. Game star was Carol Hogg.

Delrex Smoke Shop, 23 vs Thrush, 18

It seems that Delrex Smoke Shop was tired of being at the bottom of the list. This year they've started with a bang. All the innings were profitable and led them to a 25-18 victory.

The only home run of the game was hit by Claire Lacourriere. Game stars were Kelly Moore, Michelle Michm and Claire Lacourriere. Pitchers for Delrex Smoke Shop were Michelle Michm and Ellen Tucker.

Dairy Queen, 23 vs Larrad Construction, 15

The first inning was a big one for Dairy Queen as they had eight runs over home plate. Larrad Construction was never able to catch up. The most outstanding feature of the game was the amount of home wins. Tricia Fotheringham, Marion Peters and Laura Bannon each hit a home run for Dairy Queen while Margo Craig had two.

Home run hitters for Larrad Construction were Julie Fournier, Charlene Waychenko, Christine Waychenko, and Lori Henderson. Pitchers were Vicki Walte and Marion Peters. Game stars include Christine Washbourne and the whole Larrad team.

Fred Harrison, 9 vs Paulnes, 8

A very evenly matched game saw the winners in the last innings. The two teams were tied till Fred Harrison pulled out in front by one. The difference in the score never exceeded two. Home run hitter for the night was Michele Richmond with two. Pitchers were Michele Richmond, Debbie Scarborough and Judy Krajacich who also earned game star.

Georgetown Upholstery, 4 vs Kinette Krusiers, 11

The Krusiers had a few bad innings to start with but really made a threat to Georgetown Upholstery in their final chance. Seven runs in their last inning closed the gap. Game star was the Krusier's team. Pitchers were Tricia Splister and Laura Sacco.

Atoms tough on themselves

Major Atoms Georgetown 3 Salt Fleet 2

Georgetown Major Atoms made this game tough for themselves. In spite of the fact they carried the bulk of the play they could only win by one goal. Dave Williams opened the scoring in the first half on a free kick.

In the second half Mark Waters scored the second goal. With two minutes to go Mark Waters scored again to provide

Bantams turn tide

Georgetown 3 Salt Fleet 3 Bantam

It was all Salt Fleet for three quarters of the game. Georgetown scoring their first goal against the run of play to the score 1-1 at the end of the first half. It was a good passing effort. Bill Kent finishing off with a nice goal. It didn't take Salt Fleet long to score two more goals on excellent plays splitting the Georgetown defence.

With 15 minutes left to play and Georgetown working hard to contain the Salt Fleet team the tempo suddenly changed. Georgetown took control of the game.

Hard work and good passing produced a Georgetown goal by Rick Szczepaniak. It suddenly was all Georgetown with Jeff Lockwood scoring from close in for the tie.

the margin of victory. Soccer but failed to shoot and convert their chances. Georgetown played great
