

Seniors show it's really 'the time of their lives'

To kick off Senior Citizens Week in Georgetown the 'Y' Blue Triangle Club planted flowers at the Georgetown District Memorial Hospital and St. Andrew's United Church.

At a recent bake sale held by the Triangle Club, $165 was raised thus enabling the organization to buy the flowers and the planters.

Mrs. Jane Hoddinott, a convenor of the Club said they were planting the flowers to "show people that we care."

Two committees were arranged to do the flower planting. Anna Jurissen, Lena Poed, Jessie Williamson and Evelyn Ross took over at the hospital and Harold Johnston, Ena Mossop, May Johnston, Edythe Peck and Hazel Preston looked after the planting at the church.

Geraniums, petunias and marigolds were planted as a special tribute to senior citizens by the Georgetown 'Y' Blue Triangle Club.

Candlelight wedding setting

St. Paul's Church in Warton was the setting for the candlelight wedding on May 17 in which Alice Lee Anne Hardman exchanged vows with Bruce William Edwards in a double ring ceremony.

Lee Anne is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Hardman, Georgetown. Bruce is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Edwards, Etobicoke. Rev. Douglas MacDonald, Port Elgin, officiated at the ceremony. Mrs. Robert Craig of Warton was the organist.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a long white gown of rayon peau de sole, covered with a sheer "all-over" lace. The dress had a stand-up collar, empire waist and buttoned cathedral sleeves, with the train falling from the skirt of the dress.

Her tiered, elbow-length veil was held by a headpiece of lace and pearls and formed a crown. She carried a nosegay of red roses and Stephanotis, with roses hanging down on streamers.

Mrs. Bettyanne Rouse, aunt of the bride, was matron of honor. Misses Debby and Lynda Edwards, sisters of the groom, were bridesmaids, along with Miss Louise Hardman, sister of the bride. Miss Kathy Hardman, cousin of the bride, was flowergirl.

Bettyanne, Louise and Kathy wore pastel pink gowns with Debby and Lynda in pastel blue. The gowns were of polyester crimp and had tiny Daisies throughout. They were of a princess style with cape sleeves. The girls had matching hats of pink and blue with the exception of the flowergirl who wore little Carnations throughout her hair. They carried baskets of Daisies, Mums and Baby's Breath.

Mr. Jack Edwards, brother of the groom, was best man. Mr. Rick Edwards, brother of the groom, and Messrs. Bryan and Barry Hardman, brothers of the bride were ushers. Master Steven Hardman, brother of the bride, was ring bearer.

The groom and his attendants wore medium grey "Prince Albert" style tuxedos. The dinner and reception following the wedding was held at the Warton Propeller Club where the bride's mother received guests in a floor-length, mint green gown with a floral jacket, complete with corsage of white Mums and yellow Roses. She was provided by "Rainbow Country" of Owen Sound. The bride's going-away outfit was a mint green pantsuit with a beige and brown jacket. She was carrying a corsage of white Mums and Talisman Roses on her handbag.

Master of Ceremonies for the evening was Robert Sear, cousin of the bride, from Ottawa.

There were five grandparents in attendance. Three were grandparents of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hardman Jr. of Mar, and Capt. Arthur Rouse of Warton. Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hambleton of Scarborough, grandparents of the groom, were in attendance.

Mrs. Bella Edwards of Richmond, British Columbia, grandmother of the groom, was not able to attend but sent her best wishes. Music for the evening was provided by "Rainbow Country" of Owen Sound.

The bride's going-away outfit was a mint green pantsuit with an Orchid corsage. The wedding cake was decorated by Mrs. Vic Tyndall of Warton.

After a honeymoon in Clearwater Beach, Florida, the happy couple moved to their residence at 1759 Bloor St. Mississauga.

Guests attended from Ottawa, Oshawa, Toronto, Kitchener, Barrie, Lakefield, Georgetown, Brampton, Bramalea, Port Colborne, Grand Island, New York, Cambridge, Kingston, Burlington, Mississauga, Chatsworth, Port Elgin, Tara, Owen Sound, Warton and the Bruce Peninsula. Prior to the wedding two showers were held for the bride. Mrs. Don Stewart of Warton held a surprise miscellaneous shower on March 30. There were 35 guests in attendance. Mrs. Vic Tyndall had several games and then the bride-to-be opened the many gifts. She was assisted by Bettyanne Rouse and Louise Hardman. Lee Anne then thanked everyone, after which lunch was served.

Mrs. Jim Walsh held a surprise miscellaneous shower in Brampton on April 30. Friends and relatives were in attendance. Several games were played and then Lee Anne opened the gifts, assisted by her sister Louise Hardman. A very delicious lunch was served with Lee Anne thanking everyone at the end of the evening.

Thieves have a busy week in Georgetown area

A 1975 Triumph was reported stolen from Georgetown British Cars, Guelph Street, last Friday.

Thieves entered the garage of the dealership by smashing a window on the west side of the building and proceeded to open the service bay and drive away the car.

Police have a description of the vehicle with all serial numbers.

Bicycles and flags were again the target of the thieves over the past week as six bicycles were stolen while parked at stores, schools and at homes in the Georgetown area.

The Canadian flag was reported stolen from Holy Cross School last Thursday.

A break and enter at Ciroc Incorporated, Mountainview Road netted thieves $125 in cash. Entry to the premises was obtained by forcing a rear door during the night.

Caulking cement valued at $28 was stolen from the construction site of the new medical centre behind the hospital. The six tubes were stolen when entry to the storage shed was gained by knocking a hole in the door.

An autographed baseball mitt was reported stolen from Joseph Gibbons Park at a value of $20.00.

A tent stolen from the home of Donald Rayner was recovered near the papermill dam last Friday.

A stolen vehicle from Toronto was recovered in Georgetown last Saturday. A Barrie man was charged with impaired and possession.

Sixty feet of fresh concrete was disfigured at Hilltop Apartments on Queen Street.

Two instances of assault were recorded by police with charges pending on one of the two cases. An Ottawa man was discovered lying on the sidewalk at the Georgetown Market Centre after the assault.

A scraped right leg and three broken teeth were the injuries sustained by a Georgetown man while standing on the Main Street. A 20-year-old town resident will appear on charges of assault.

One case of fraud is under investigation by Halton Regional Police in the amount of $22.04. A forged cheque was cashed at Young's Pharmacy, Main Street, last Friday.

Three juveniles were seen stealing a gear shift handle by a watchful resident on Windsor Road.

Occupants of a truck with a noisy muffler have been throwing eggs at the home of a Georgetown man. Investigation is continuing.

The business sign of Ewan Chiropractic Clinic was damaged by unknown persons Monday evening. The sign was located on Guelph Street.

Three charges have been laid in connection with drug offences during the week, all with marijuana.

Week's fender benders

A collision involving a parked car did over $1,000 damage to the cars of Denise Bennedetti of Erin and Terry Harlow of Georgetown. The collision occurred at the Georgetown Market Centre, Thursday.

The parked car of Lee Hooker, 21 Raylawn Crescent, received $300 damages when struck by an unknown vehicle.

Damages were estimated at $50 for the vehicle of Daniel Conway of Wesleyan Street, when his car was struck by an unknown vehicle, Friday. A description of the car has been turned over to police and investigation is continuing.

Another bicycle accident was recorded over the weekend when Ron Taylor of Stevens Crescent failed to open car door of Robert McKay of Acton.

The Taylor boy was treated by a doctor for scrapes and bruises and was released. The collision occurred on Main Street.

HOMESTEAD ENSIGN PHYLLIS, a Bred Heifer, sold in the Holstein sale of the East, brought $1,550 on the bid of Albert Cormier, Valentina Farms Ltd., Georgetown, Ontario. She is sired by Downslane Century Ensign, who is classified Excellent for type and rated a Superior Type.

Sire. Her dam is the Good Plus, Homestead Pauline Rockman, who has a six lactation average of 123 percent BCA for milk and 127 percent BCA for fat.

Want land

Representatives from the Garden Club of Hamilton are very interested in acquiring approximately 40 acres of land in the area known as the old town reservoir.

It is expected that the club will be meeting very shortly with the town to discuss their interest in the property which is owned by Halton Hills.

One for you, one for me

The town has done a bit of wheeling and dealing with Georgetown developer Al Pilutti to get a parcel of land adjacent to the Georgetown landfill site. The town has swapped a parcel of land on Charles Street, approximately opposite Lorne Street, for the landfill property.

Council agreed to the trade on the understanding that Mr. Pilutti will pay all surveying and legal costs involved in the deal.

Council okays diamond

Speyside may never be the home of another National Baseball League franchise but it is finally going to be the site of some hectic minor league softball games.

Town council Monday night approved a resolution presented by Councillor Len Cox which provides from $1,000 to $1,500 for work on a softball diamond adjacent to the Speyside Public School.

"They have a ball league going over there but the ball diamond is anything less than presentable," Councillor Cox commented.

Councillor Dick Howitt added, "There's no question about the need because third base is located on the asphalt."

THE 21ST ANNUAL Remembrance Service was held at Glen Williams Cemetery Sunday. Rev. Richard Ruggle conducted the services with Jim Jones host for the one-hour service.
