Jean Wakefield proves there's a place for women

A Georgetown woman is proving that there is, indeed, a place for women in the financial world. Jean Wakefield, 79, Moore Park Crescent, has received the fellowship from the Institute of Canadian Bankers, a prestigious organization representing financial institutions throughout Canada.

Mrs. Wakefield, who happens to be the mother of three children, has been working towards her fellowship for the past four years. To receive it she has had to successfully complete ten very demanding courses. She has received honors

Ballinafad news

Ballinafad picnic lot of fun

There were over 20 ladies present for the June meeting of the Ballinafad UCW held at the home of Mrs. Marilyn Linstead on Tuesday evening of last week. Mrs. Eileen McEnery, president, opened with a short poem and Mrs. Norman Sinclair, acting secretary, read the minutes of the May meeting.

Mrs. Pinkerton gave the treasurer's report. Various items of business came up and were dealt with, including two catering jobs.

The rollcall was an interesting one as each member gave an item about the old Methodist Church, before union and a past pastor of the area. The devotion was given by Mrs. Jesse McEnery after which a favorite hymn was sung.

Mrs. McEnery described in detail the United Church crest, followed by the devotional which closed with another favorite hymn.

The topic was given by Mrs. Gloria Johnson. She read letters from Dr. Lottia Hitchmanova executive director of the Unitarian Service Committee of Canada. She has been working in Nairobi, South Africa. The letters were very interesting as they told of her experiences with the native people.

Mrs. Marshall and Mrs. Madill assisted Mrs. Linstead in serving lunch.

Mr. Jesse McEnery returned home from Guelph General Hospital last week after a successful minor operation. His many friends hope his health will be much improved.

Several families from the community went camping at a park near Clifford for the weekend. It was an ideal weekend weather-wise.

Mr. and Mrs. Griffen Jones from Garson are spending a holiday at the Smith farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Marshall are busy moving this week. They will be living in a trailer home until their new home is built.

We will be welcoming Dr. B. C. Buckrell, his wife, and family from Stewarttown. They are the new owners of the Marshall farm and they will be living there on the weekends.

The open air church service and picnic were well attended on Sunday. It was held on the lawn of Eveline and Bud Snow's. Mrs. Clarke and Marion Jamieson were in charge of the sports.

Coningaby Women's Institute celebrated their 70th anniversary at Brisbane School on Sunday. Neighboring institutes were invited and some from the Ballinafad branch attended and report a happy time.

Alloa wedding for couple

Nancy Bernice Faulkner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Faulkner, 109 Mountainview Road, Georgetown married James Ronald Bland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Bland of Brampton on Saturday, May 17.

The 4 o'clock wedding took place in the Home United Church in Alloa, Ontario with Reverend Walter Ridley officiating at the double ring ceremony and with Mrs. Irene Wheeler playing the organ.

The bride wore a gown made by her mother of polyester satin with lace sleeves. Seed pearl trim decorated the gown. The seed pearl headpiece carried a waist-length, lace veil. The bride carried a bouquet of red Roses and pink Carnations.

Mrs. Darlene Pentland of Georgetown, a long-time friend of the bride was matron of honor. Miss Sharon Faulkner, and Miss Lori Faulkner, nieces of the bride and Miss Fay Bland, sister of the groom, were bridesmaids with Miss Andrea Faulkner, another niece of the bride, as flowergirl. All the attendants wore gowns of mint green, flocked nylon and each carried a bouquet of yellow Gladiolas and Daisies. The flowergirl carried a basket of yellow Daisies and small Mums.

Mr. William Bryans, a friend of the groom, was the bestman with Mr. John Holtby Brampton, Mr. Howard Faulkner, Caledon East, and Mr. Stephen Gardhouse from Brampton as ushers. Brent Faulkner, a nephew of the bride, was the ringbearer.

The male attendants wore black tuxedos with velvet vests and ruffled shirts.

Mother of the bride, Mrs. Stanley Faulkner, wore a gown of blue flowered nylon with a matching long coat. She wore a corsage of white Roses and Stephanotis.

Mother of the groom, Mrs. Ronald Bland, wore a gown of coral flowered nylon and a matching coat. She wore a corsage of mauve Orchids.

After the reception, held at the Georgetown Golf and Country Club, the couple left for a honeymoon in northern Ontario.

Before the wedding the bride received three miscellaneous showers given by Mrs. Darlene Pentland, Mrs. Fay Craig and Mrs. Melody Hyland. A community shower was given by the Ladies of the Home United Church.

From her fellow employees the bride was presented with a set of matching pots and pans.

The newlywed couple will be living on 11 Gatwick Lane, Bramalea.

Debra Ann Frost-Brian Glenn Shoebridge

They travelled in style

Debra Ann Frost, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Frost, RR4, Georgetown, married Brian Glenn Shoebridge, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Shoebridge of Georgetown, on Saturday, June 14 at 5:00 p.m. at the Norval United Church.

Arrangements of white and yellow Mums decorated the church. Reverend Walter Ridley officiated at the double ring ceremony. Mr. William Barclay was the soloist, with Mrs. May Ridley accompanying Mrs. Barclay's selections which included "The Lord's Prayer," "The Wedding Song" and "I'll Walk Beside You."

The bride and groom rode in style from the church to the reception held at the St. George's Anglican Church hall. A 1917 Ford convertible, owned by Mr. and Mrs. William Allison, Eighth Line, Georgetown and chauffeured by Mr. Allison, was their means of transportation.

At the reception a great aunt of the bride, Miss Marge Frost, gave grace and a long-time friend of the bride and her family, Mr. Sig Scharhi, from Mexico, Missouri, proposed the toast to the bride.

The bride wore a gown with a slightly flared skirt with double lace flourishes. The bodice was covered with lace with long lace sleeves.

Keeping the tradition of wearing something old, the bride wore a pearl ring of her great, great aunt.

The bride carried a bouquet of red Roses accented with Baby's Breath.

Mary-Ann Scharhi was the matron of honor with Susan Raposo, Trudi Shoebridge and Kelly Frost as bridesmaids. All the attendants wore gowns of mint green with V-neck and flared short sleeves.

They each carried white baskets of white shasta Daisies, yellow Roses with highlights of Baby's Breath.

Cameron Ward of Peterborough, was the best man with Gordon Shoebridge, Dave Shoebridge and George Kirtley as ushers.

Two other special guests attended the wedding. Mrs. Alleen Frost, grandmother of the bride and Mr. Shoebridge, grandfather of the groom, helped celebrate their grandchildren's wedding.

Joanne Frost, mother of the bride, wore a floor length gown of peach polyester silk jersey with a short matching cape. She wore a diamond cluster ring of her grandmother and a corsage of white Gardenias.

Edith Shoebridge, mother of the groom, wore a floor-length aqua gown with a girle of pearls and a matching, floor-length, long-sleeved coat which was also edged in pearls. The gown and coat were made of polyester silk jersey. She wore a corsage of yellow Roses.

As her travelling outfit the bride wore a pure silk V-necked sleeveless dress with a long sleeved jacket of orange, tan and white print. Tan leather sandal pumps with a matching purse were her accessories.

The newlywed couple travelled to Haliburton Highlands for their honeymoon. Mr. and Mrs. Shoebridge purchased a mobile home and will be living in Willow Park in Norval.

Cheryl Dexter and Brenda Dixon as bridesmaids.

Thomas Fancy of Chatham, Ontario was the best man with Robert Fogal, Richard Fogal and Jack Kemahed as ushers. The groom's mother Mrs. Charles Fogal, wore a floor-length gown of light blue knit with a blue and beige long lace coat. She wore a corsage of yellow Sweetheart Roses.

The bride wore a cream colored, floor-length knit dress with a matching jacket as her travelling outfit. She wore a corsage of Orchids.

The couple went to Niagara Falls and Virginia Beach for their honeymoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Fogal's summer residence will be in Massachusetts and their winter residence will be in St. George's, Quebec.

GDHS auto teacher passes course

Mr. Robert Webster, an auto-mechanic instructor at Georgetown District High School, was one of the 21 participants in the auto workshop held at Ferris State College in Big Rapids, Michigan.

Instructors from across Canada and the U.S. attended the course, held from May 27 through June 7, with the primary objective of updating their technical knowledge.

Mr. Webster along with the other instructors, studied electrical circuit fundamentals, wiring and service, chassis.

The participants earned undergraduate credits in professional education through Ferris State College and graduate school credits at Central Michigan University.

Brother steps in for father

On Saturday, June 21, at the St. John's United Church, Ruth Ann Mallon, daughter of Mr. Charles Mallon and the late Theresa Mallon from Rhode Is. married Ronald William Fogal, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fogal of RR1 Georgetown.

The bride's father, Mr. Charles Mallon, could not attend the wedding because of illness in the family. Mr. Thomas Mallon, brother of the bride, escorted the bride down the aisle and gave her in marriage.

The bride wore a floor length gown of ivory lace.

Kathleen Gonsolves of Massachusetts was the matron of honor with Kathleen Knight, matching purse were her accessories.

The newlywed couple travelled to Haliburton Highlands for their honeymoon. Mr. and Mrs. Shoebridge purchased a mobile home and will be living in Willow Park in Norval.
