Police blotter

Two attempted and two successful "break and enter" incidences were investigated by Halton Regional Police District One this past week.

Unidentified persons tried to gain access to the garage door of a Mary Street home. The second attempted occurrence was reported on Edward Street after residents discovered a lawn chair beneath a window and a removed rear window screen. Removing the outer screens and prying the window open gained access for unknown burglars to a home on Princess Anne Drive. The number and type goods taken has not been determined. Investigation by police is continuing.

A table lighter and a cold beer satisfied the juvenile who broke into a John Street apartment. A suspect is in the hands of the Youth Bureau in connection with the Thursday break-in.

Cars were again the target of thieves as gasoline, ignition wires, radios and validation stickers were all reported stolen this past week with one instance of damage to the car.

Residents of Queen Street, Chelvin Drive and Mountainview Road were all early morning victims of the culprit. Replacement costs for the validation sticker lost by Gordon Murray of Queen Street is valued at $2. An undetermined amount of gasoline was also taken from his vehicle. The three thefts occurred Wednesday evening.

Several youths were overheard while in the process of throwing a picnic table into the Georgetown Outdoor Pool. Police arrived at the scene after the damage had been done.

A "masked man" has been observed in the parking lot of the Georgetown Market Centre. Investigation has turned up nothing so far.

Accidents were varied this week in Halton Hills ranging from minor fender benders to major write-offs.

On Wednesday at the intersection of Main Street and Park Avenue, $5,000 damage was done to the bicycle of James Baillie of 63 Edward Street in a

Do you have any draw tickets in your back pocket or in your dresser drawer? We still have one prize unclaimed from the picnic and we are anxious to find the owner. The number is 304109. I hope you have it. Just happened to be in the branch on Saturday afternoon and was pleased to hear Fred Bottle playing in the lounge. Until he showed up there were about four people in the lounge, but as the music filtered through to the other side, we found the lounge quickly filling up and everyone enjoyed the afternoon a little more. Thanks a lot Fred.

Can't tell you who is playing this weekend as no word was left with me by the ways and means chairman. You'll just have to come down I guess and hear for yourself. I was told that one of our pipers from our band (Gord Grozier) played for an hour after the d.j. had finished on Saturday evening. Gord was very well received.

As far as I am concerned there is nothing like "live" entertainment in our lounge to keep up the interest of all members and guests. One thing for sure, we are never short-changed by our performing members. Many of them are quite willing to get up and sing or play and we thoroughly enjoy it.

Were you in World War 1? Did you attend the Unity Convention in 1926 in Winnipeg? Have you had 50 continuous years in the Royal Canadian Legion? For our 50th anniversary the legion is looking for those of you who qualify. There will be a 50 year medal for you and also a special Queen's folder plus a dinner and a lot of other goodies. Let us know if you fit the picture or if you know of someone in another legion who does.

Our good friend Steve Hillier is in hospital (York-Finch) and has been for about three weeks. We hope he will be home soon. Anyone going out that way to perhaps visit someone else, would you give his wife Bernice a call and give her a lift out? Steve has had a back operation. Hope you are 100 percent now Steve.

A special note to member B. McQ. It was Nell Armstrong, that famous astronaut, who said "One small step for man... One giant leap for mankind..." Altho' you took a giant step last week, I don't think that qualifies you for becoming an astronaut. I wouldn't suggest you try that again. Hope you are feeling better soon also.

Past President Norm Ward and Ada will be leaving this week for a lovely three-week trip home to England and we all hope you have a terrific time. Don't send us a card "having a wonderful time, wish you were here" or we all may just take you on it and

Boy escapes collision with automobile

Christine Mann were both damaged when the driver lost control of her vehicle near 351 Delrex Boulevard. Damage to the fence has been set at $20 and $10 for the car. The driver of the car was taken to Georgetown District Memorial Hospital as a result of the collision and released after treatment. She was transported to the hospital by her father.

A charge of failing to remain may be issued in connection with Saturday's hit and run collision involving the vehicle of Tjtske Vanprosen of Georgetown. Damage to the car has been estimated at $150. As yet police have no clues about the driver of the second vehicle involved in the accident.

land on your doorstep. To all members and especially the newer ones who perhaps don't know the regulations regarding the "little black box" by the bar. The name is pulled every evening about 6:30. You sign in when you are in the branch and put in your quarter. (Just one quarter for yourself, not for anyone else) and when a name is pulled, the sheet is checked and if you have signed in, you will receive a percentage of the amount in the little black box. Only paid-up members' names go in the drum to be pulled.

We welcome Marilyn Mason into our membership now and hope she will enjoy our branch. Our 12th car club draw has started up again. Anyone with stubs please hand them into your captain so they can get squared away with the committee. Good luck to you all.

Winners Week 1: 44, Ivan Penfold; 44, A. M. Moore; 57, Helen Wilkes; 68, Charlie Day; 287, Wm. Weir; 1, Dave Bell. Week 2: 488, Bob Hedley; 89, M. Hunter; 418, H. Cunningham; 182, Don Scarce; 338, Irene Kearns; 230, E. Shoebridge.

Week 3: 201 B. McQuarrie; 117, F. Wallace; 281, George Webster; 160, Petro Proctor; 202, Gord Preston; 363, Al Walker. Week 4: 20, Pat Chamberlain; 293, Dick Packer; 372, Stan Eyre; 48, J. Quinton; 459, Tom Clarke; 474, Charlie Jenner.

Any articles being made for the October bazaar that will need to be stuffed will find the stuffing at the branch upstairs. Also, material and wool is there. I have all the borg material at home if you need it. So far no-one has. Mid Brunski says that she has had very, very few books. Would you please let Mid know if you wish her to pick them up. The cookbook committee seem to have the cookbook well under way. Some girls are still working away and I have seen some beautiful work that has been done.

Our Legion Pipe Band joins with all members in congratulating the Georgetown Girls Pipe Band, in being judged first in competition last Saturday in Burlington. We have three members who have girls in the band on our street alone; Tracey (Pearce) Porter and Linda (Dennis) Cartwright, who are Pipers and Linda (George) Greig who is a drummer.

Our fellows can appreciate
