

More than the water made a splash!

Some cool young ladies add an extra attraction to Terra Cotta's
new pool

DON'T RUN IN IT, JUST ON. Calvin Kotack and Roseanna Gombs of Toronto enjoy the free sun at Terra Cotta and quietly celebrate the long weekend.

A QUICK SPLASH and it's back in the sun for Julie Pomeroy. As the afternoon progressed the Terra Cotta pool began to fill with the sounds of splashing and laughing as more and more realized it was a perfect day for swimming and sitting in the sun.

SEE ME SWIM, MISTER! Everyone hams it up for the photographer as this youngster did, but paddled away before she left her name.

EASY DOES IT! Why exert yourself on a beautiful day? It was just as easy to lie on the bottom as to float on the top as Ms. McKoy illustrates.

MONDAY WAS A BEAUTIFUL DAY to catch up on sunning without fear of roasting. Cindy Johnston joined the crowd at Terra Cotta pool.

photography by: richard forster