The potato is king

The potato may be king in Hillsburgh during Potato Fest time but this year all women are going to be queens. In honor of international Women's Year the Hillsburgh Potato Fest is going to salute women.

There are a number of events aimed specifically at women during the three days of the Potato Fest, running from Friday, September 5 to Sunday, September 7. The highlight of the whole affair will be a grand parade scheduled to get underway at noon on Saturday.

Two Georgetown bands, the Legion Pipe Band and the Girls Pipe Band, will be among seven bands in the parade as well as 400 majorettes and many floats and antique cars.

The weekend of activities in the community which is located 15 miles north of Georgetown on Highway 25, will kick off Friday night with the Potato Fest Queen Pageant which will be followed by a teen dance featuring Georgetown's Station House.

Saturday the fun will keep right on rolling beginning with the parade. After that the special events will include the official opening at 1:30 and a fashion show at 2 at the Ross R. McKay School. The Al-Mar Musical Ride will take place at 2 and 3 p.m.

In the evening a Potato Fest Dance will round out the day's activities beginning at 9 and running to 1 a.m. Sunday the hectic pace will continue. The Al-Mar Musical Ride will take place again as well as a professional variety show at 3 p.m. featuring a number of entertainers. A beef barbecue dinner will also take place from 2 to 5 p.m.

Throughout Saturday and Sunday a number of continuing events will be taking place including amusement rides, snowmobile grass "drags", farm tours, potato sack races (of course) and a "gigantic" Lions bingo. And, as should be expected, throughout the fest Hillsburgh potatoes will be for sale.
