Falcons fall against Ching

The Falcons played their best soccer in the first half against Chinguacousy last Wednesday leading 1-0 at half time on a goal by Ken Chapman. A free kick taken by Joe Cairns got through the wall of players and was too hard for the goalkeeper to handle, leaving a rebound. Ken, making no mistake, put Georgetown up 1-0. Chinguacousy had Peter Roe in the lineup. Peter played for the Toronto Metros as well as for Canada's National Team. The Metros finished their season making Peter eligible to sign with the Chinguacousy Majors. Georgetown kept him in check throughout the game but in the second half Ching got on the scoreboard on a corner kick. Two Georgetown defenders were held by Roe, preventing them from moving and neither the referee nor the spectators could see this clever holding which resulted in the goal. A handball in the goalmouth by one of our own players, who really had no alternative, resulted in a penalty shot making it 2-1. It was a good game by both teams Ching scoring direct from a corner kick put the game out of reach for the Falcons. Winning this contest 3-1 Chinguacousy will visit Georgetown next Sunday at 3 and you will not be disappointed in turning out for this one.

On Sunday Falcons met their strongest opponent, Hercules, a farm team for Homer in the National League. Falcons were down 2-0 at half time with Hercules displaying skill and condition throughout. The second half started on the wrong note for the Falcons when a handball resulted in a penalty shot for the third goal. From that time on the Falcons had nothing to lose and moved up to leave themselves more open on defence. This however backfired on them resulting in four more goals before the game was over.

The two losses left the weekend Falcons in third place, three points behind Chinguacousy who tied Renaissance 2-2 over the Falcons.

Town, Lions agree on pool lease

Just three days before officials gathered to cut the ribbon to officially open the new addition to the Lions Club pool town councillors and the town's solicitors were still wrangling over the town's lease agreement with the service club for the property. Ray Steele, solicitor for the town, met with council last Tuesday night to iron out the last wrinkle in the agreement which will give the service club a 20-year lease of the property plus first right of refusal on a sale once the 20 years are up. The lease, as presented, was approved and passed by council.
