Three top CNE show

Three calves raised by Georgetown area residents swept the top placings in the prestigious Junior Holstein Show held in conjunction with the Canadian National Exhibition.

The first and second placings in the three heifer calf classes were formed into a championship line-up from which the show's judge, Ralph H. Fawcett, Winchester, selected Spring Hedge Lea Unique, shown by Laura Moore, Terra Colla, as champion.

In reserve position was Spring Hedge Charity shown by Donna Stewart, Hornby. According to the judge, they typed well together, showing plenty of dairy quality and walking on very good feet and legs. Honorable mention in a close third position was Agro Acres Unique Emblem shown by Lynne Stewart, also of Hornby.

Unique was the first prize senior calf, Charity the first prize junior calf and Emblem the second place senior.

During the showing of the three calf classes, Showmanship Judge John Krauter, of Toronto selected five entries from each section to comprise the class to be judged for showmanship. Lynne Stewart of Hornby placed second in the competition. Lynne was also the winner of the showmanship trophy at the Royal Winter Fair in 1974.

Grand champ of Canada

Judge Maurice Jebson of Beaverton, selected the heifer as best of the 73 head shown during the show.

In the yearling heifer class Benview Ruben Paula stood first for Jeff Nurse, RR2 Georgetown and was junior champion female. Jeff also showed the winning two-year-old, A Manco Chief Sherry.
