Flying to Elsa in the Yukon the Pattersons spent two weeks with their daughter Joy, her husband and family. The Pattersons travelled by plane to Edmonton. By Greyhound Coach they travelled from Edmonton to Thunder Bay with stopovers at Saskatoon and Winnipeg.

Silverwood news

Friends honor Janet Henderson

By Alicia Scott
 Mrs. H. Marchington was hostess for the fall opening meeting of the Silverwood

Women's Institute held Thursday evening. The vice-president occupied the chair. The ode was repeated and rollcall was answered by TV and radio advertisements that annoyed people. Needless to say there were many. The minutes and the treasurer's report were given and adopted.

English visitor

By E. Grant

Rev. Charles Bell of Oakville was in charge of the Monday service at St. John's Anglican Church on Sunday. Flowers on the altar were placed there by Mr. and Mrs. George English in memory of Judy Bassett.

and Mrs. T. Harold Briggs.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Langdon of South Wales have returned after three weeks vacation with their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. D. Godden. David Godden spent eight weeks in the north during the summer as a Junior Ranger and thoroughly enjoyed the way of life.

Mrs. Helen Lawrenson of Lancashire, England was a guest of the Esqueving Women's Institute at their regular September meeting, held Thursday, September 11 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Dawson.

Following the service the congregation was invited to have coffee and we had an opportunity to view the banners at a closer range. We found the majority of them were from Ontario. Two we noted in particular were "This Do In Remembrance of Me" done by Edna and Edith Joyce of Milton and "The Sacrifice of the Pelican" by Sally Jones of Oakville.
