

Youngsters raise $55

A group of RR2 Georgetown youngsters raised $55 at a Muscular Dystrophy Carnival they held last Saturday. Cindy Ann Hunter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hunter from the Eighth line, organized the carnival.

Cindy had a number of friends helping her out for the day full of fun, games and other money raising events. The helpers of the carnival were: John Hunter, Tommy Cox, Colleen Cox, Kim McKee, Emma Morrow, Marilyn and Elizabeth Bird, Debbie Livingston, Murray Royce, Lisa Affleck, Mary Griffin, Tommy Barnes, Terry Lynn Poynts, Karen Stockwell and Debbie Deenik, Elizabeth Hunter and Lisa McKee.

Wedding in White

The Canadian Film Festival held by the Halton Hills Public Library will feature "Wedding in White" Friday September 26 at Knox Presbyterian Church hall at 8.00.

The idea for the film originated when the director and author William Fruet was ten years old.

"This young girl was wheeling a baby buggy down the street, and this very old man with her. I knew it was not her father or grandfather I knew it was her husband just by the way he walked with her, and I knew there was a tremendous imbalance. Years later I brought it up to my mother and she revealed the whole story to me," said William Fruet.

Mr. Dressup coming soon

The return of Mr. Dressup to Georgetown is no doubt going to be good news for a number of children who enjoyed his last performance here tremendously.

Mr. Dressup returns to Halton Hills on Saturday, Sept. 27 when he will put on two performances at 1.30 and 3.30. As Mr. Dressup Ernie Coombs, star of the popular CBC show now in its tenth season, will perform a live stage show designed specifically for young children. On stage with Mr. Dressup will be his famous "Tickle Trunk" and almost magic repository for all sorts of props and costumes.

It's advised that anyone who is planning to attend either of the two shows obtain tickets immediately by calling 877-8235, 877-5766 or 877-7165.

Arts, crafts hobby show

An arts, crafts and hobby show will be presented by St. Margaret's Guild, St. Alban's, Grand Valley on Saturday, October 4.

There will be 24 exhibitors displaying weaving, pottery, macrame, tatting, crocheting, symography, needle-point, petit point, stone polished jewellery, soapstone carvings, sterling plus artists will be displaying some of their paintings.

This will provide an excellent opportunity to get a jump on Christmas shopping for many of the articles will be on sale. The show will also provide lots of ideas for making your own hand-made gifts.

Jamieson new hearing officer

David Jamieson, a former vice-chairman and 20-year veteran of the Ontario Municipal Board, has been appointed chief hearing officer under the Niagara Escarpment planning and development act.

Mr. Jamieson will hear appeals against rulings by the Niagara Escarpment Commission, which received authority on June 10, 1975 to control land use within a defined zone of the Niagara Escarpment planning area. Appeals against decisions made by the commission under the act's development control regulations are made directly to the minister of housing. The minister in turn will direct the chief hearing officer to conduct the hearing. Mr. Jamieson will begin hearing appeals immediately. The hearings are expected to take place in municipalities near the Niagara Escarpment.
