

Saturday Skate-a-thon

The Georgetown Figure Skating Club has openings in its pre-school and junior programs. Children of any age above, three years may join even if they have never skated before. The program gives boys and girls the chance for professional instruction to learn and develop the basic skating skills necessary to perform in any ice sport.

Openings are also available at higher levels of figure skating. A new program this year gives adults a chance to have fun and exercise, learning skating skills. For more information on any of the above, please contact Mrs. L.

Douglas, 85 Jocelyn Cres., Georgetown, 877-9956.

The Rotary Skate-a-thon is this Saturday. We hope that all skaters, especially the seniors and intermediates are working. One senior skater has five pledge sheets filled. Are you doing as well to support the new arena?

A newsletter will be sent out repeating the times to be at the arena. Junior skaters will be telephoned and told which group they are in. Don't forget to put GFSC at the top of your pledge sheets and be at the arena one half hour early. Good skating!

Pee Wees in action

The Georgetown Minor PeeWees hockey team have swung into action already, in preparation for their upcoming season and last week defeated Thornhill Pee Wees in an exhibition contest, 4-3. The game was deadlocked 1-1 after twenty minutes of play, Peter Haller counting the first Georgetown goal, but Thornhill scored twice in the second period while Georgetown managed but a single goal, to allow Thornhill to jump into a 2-1 lead after forty minutes of play. The Georgetown marksman in the second frame was Rivy Kennedy, who scored at the 12:58 mark. In the final period, the Georgetown defence tightened up considerably and while Thornhill was being held at bay, Mike Doucette scored at the 7:19 mark to knot the contest and Jamie South potted the winning goal at the 8:10 mark.

The Minor Pee Wees will continue with their exhibiting schedule as they travel to Guelph on September 28th, then host Guelph at the Gordon Alcott Memorial Arena, Tuesday, September 30. Tuesday's contest is slated to get underway at 6:30 p.m.
