

Grandmother's pearl graces bride

Cathy-Lea French, Alan Snelling

White satin bows on pews and tinted white, green and orange mums decorated the communion table of the Ballinacree United Church for the marriage of Cathy-Lea French and Alan Bruce Snelling on Sept. 13.

Cathy is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reginald French of Ballinacree and Alan is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Snelling of Weston.

Rev. D. Stiles officiated at the ceremony with organist Bill McClusky, cousin of the bride. Friends of the bride and groom, Steve Marshall and Mike Cooper sang "Your Song" accompanied by Elizabeth Cooper on the piano.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a floor-length gown of white organza with fitted bodice, the yoke and high neckline of filagree lace studded with pearls. Lace repeated in the fitted sleeves and formed a deep ruffle at the hemline. The headpiece of organza roses held a bouffant chapel veil of silk illusion. Her bouquet was cascading yellow roses.

For something old the bride wore a dove pearl necklace of her grandmother's, Mrs. Dan Campbell, which she wore on her wedding day. For something borrowed she wore a pearl bracelet of the groom's mother.

Miss Debby French of Ballinacree, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, wearing a long gown of mint green with flowered bodice and sleeves. She wore a matching picture hat and carried a colonial bouquet of orange mums.

Bridesmaids were Ruth French, sister-in-law of the bride; and friends, Miss Heather Kirkwood of Erin; Miss Nancy Wallis of Ballinacree and junior bridesmaid, Miss Kimberly French of Georgetown, cousin of the bride. The attendants wore identical gowns of orange-ice with flowered bodice and sleeves and wore matching picture hats. They each carried colonial bouquets of mint green mums. Each girl wore a birthstone necklace, their gift from the bride.

Mr. Bruce Warren, friend of the groom, was the best man. Ushers were Ray Snelling of Streetsville, brother of the groom; Frank Mertinz, a friend from Weston; and brothers of the bride, Wayne French of Acton and Blake French of Ballinacree.

Following the ceremony, the guests attended a dinner at the Ballinacree Church hall with Mr. Delmar French, uncle of the bride acting as master of ceremonies. In the evening a reception was held for guests and friends at the Acton Music Centre.

The bride's mother received the guests wearing a floor-length gown of mint-green with matching jacket. The groom's mother received wearing a floor-length gown in mauve with a cheer, flowered jacket.

Special guests who attended the wedding were; grandparents of the groom, Mr. A. Pilling of Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. B. Snelling of Rexdale and Mr. Dan Campbell of Acton, grandfather of the bride.

Other guests attended from California, Halifax, Nova Scotia, Bay Ridges, Fergus, Kenilworth and Samascus. The wedding cake was made by the bride's mother and decorated by Miss Karen Sykes of Georgetown.

Prior to her marriage the bride was presented with a gift of money and a vase from the staff at Forsythe and Gerrie Ltd., Guelph, where she is employed.

Miscellaneous shppers were given by Mrs. K. Cross and Mrs. Lawrence of Weston; Mrs. Ray Swindlehurst, Miss Nancy Wallis and Debby French and Mrs. Anne Howatt, Doreen and Mrs. Mary Clark of

Harmony CWL's theme

"Harmony with God, within ourselves and with others," was the theme of an interpersonal relationship questionnaire of Dorothy Bergmann at the October Catholic Women's League meeting.

Sue Lorito presided over the business part of the meeting. Members were asked to list projects to support from bazaar profits. The Contact Centre, High School scholarships, nativity statues, Volunteer International Christian Service, junior choir, Home of Compassion in Ceylon, St. Monica House for Unwed Mothers and church-sponsored television.

Suzanne Moore offered to arrange the annual Christmas Dinner. Money left from convention costs will be used. Sienna Van Hockelen reported on the dinner she convened for the Halton county Softball Association. Much of the kitchen equipment has disappeared and new material will be bought with the dinner profits.

Next month the meeting will be to put the final touches on the Nov. 22 bazaar.
