THE HERALD, Wednesday, November 24, 1975-Page 17

With Christmas soon upon us you couldn't find a better place to shop for that 'someone special'. If you have the time to spare some afternoon, why not take a run down and see for yourself what they have, and don't forget your lawn chairs at the same time.

I spent a most enjoyable Saturday afternoon, when along with other auxiliary members Barb Reyce, June Greig and Jane Kirby we attended the Achievement Day activities of the Ladies Auxiliary-sponsored 4H Homemaking Club. This was held in Milton at the E.C. Drury School. You would have to see to believe the fantastic baking these young girls have done. This first project or unit they started on was "Baking With Yeast". They made rolls, bread (sourdough, basic white bread, freezer, whole wheat bread) Chelsea buns, fancy rolls (bow-knots, figure 8's, clover leaves, bear claws, fantana) puffy dutch mini cakes.

Our club with leaders Jane Kirby and Marilyn Thomas were Sheryl Greig, Nancy Diamond, Diane Leonard, Lee Timpeon, Marla Lowen, Tara Bludd, Sharron Richardson, Rhonda Nicholucci, Lynn Waters, Lynne Mackinnon, Hully Hulme, Wendy Chaplin and Anna Edward.

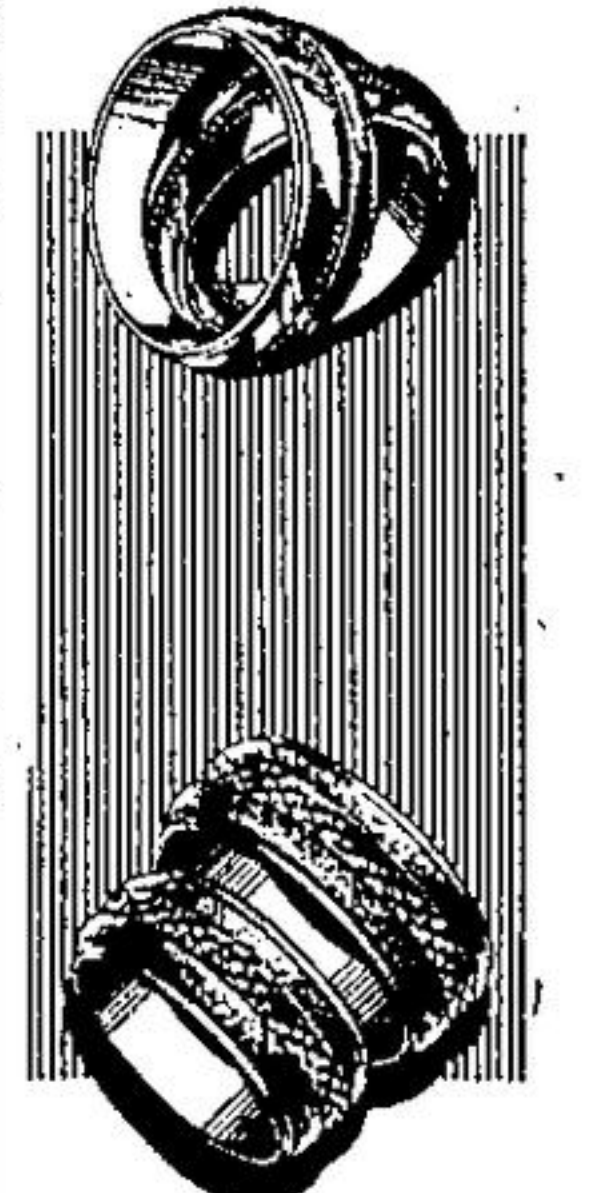

They were first year girls for the most part and received a 4-H crest and silver teapoon. About 30 girls received crests and spoons which shows the interest in the club. Many girls received certificates which they do when two units are completed. There were girls from Horaby, Limehouse, Palermo, Dublin North, Ashgrove, Bannockburn (another new club and first year members) and Scotch Block (Milton).

Miss Lorraine Holding was commentator for the afternoon and is a home economist. Many skits were presented, four exhibits of specials such as breakfast breads, holiday breads rolls of any shape and snacks with bread, and there were three demonstrations including a very comical skit on "How not to make bread and rolls!" Sharron Richardson was commentator for the Georgetown group. There was one boy in the group.

Next on the girls' agenda will be "Creative Stitchery" which will begin in early February. Jane Kirby and Marilyn Thomas have done an exceptionally fine job helping these girls enabling them to accomplish what they have over the past few weeks. Miss Holding and Mrs. Margaret Loewen (Mississauga) both said what an excellent job the girls had done with their record books and end results. The girls were very keen on this project and will all be taking the creative stitchery unit in February. Thanks to the ladies auxiliary for sponsoring this club.

Five new members were accepted at Monday evening's executive meeting. We welcome Herb Percival, Ross E. Walsh Jr., Ross E. Walsh Sr., K.A. Spence and John R. Schileman. Do come out often and enjoy your Branch.

For your wedding day and ever after
