Farmers name Milton man HFA president

Harold Middlebrook, RR2 Milton, has been elected the president of the Halton Federation of Agriculture for the coming year. His election came during the HFA's annual meeting and dinner held Thursday night in Hillcrest United Church, Hornby.

Elected to the post of first vice-president is Bob Merry, RR5 Milton, and the new second vice-president is Ed Segsworth, RR 2 Milton. Wilma Ella has been re-elected to the position of secretary-treasurer for the federation.

Harold Biggar, Oakville, has been named as an executive committee member.

Also acclaimed to positions on the federation's board of directors were: Norm Bird, Maple Avenue, Georgetown; Horace Blyth, RR 3 Acton; Arnold Fish, Oakville; Tom Foster, RR 3 Campbellville; Murray Harris, RR 6 Milton; Claud Inglis, RR2 Campbellville.

Harold Lawrence, Oakville; Art Lawson, RR 5 Milton; Collin Marshall, RR 4 Milton; Bruce McClure, RR 3 Georgetown; Bob Merry, RR 5

Milton; Harold Middlebrook, RR 2 Milton. Fred Nurse, RR 2 Georgetown; Lloyd Pickering, Oakville; Jim Reid, RR 6 Milton; Ed Segsworth, RR 2 Milton; Gerhard Treviranus, RR 2 Georgetown and Joe Windmiller, RR 1 Acton.

Halton's agricultural representative for the ministry of agriculture and food, Henry Stanley, was the guest speaker for the evening. Showing slides taken last summer during a trip he and his wife, made of northern Europe, including Scotland, England, Holland and Switzerland. Mr. Stanley commented on the intensive use made of agricultural lands in those countries. He also noted the differences in livestock between European and Canadian breeds.

Gerhard Treviranus told the federation members of the recent Ontario Federation of Agriculture annual meeting held in Hamilton. He noted that membership in the OFA appeared to be declining "because some farmers just don't seem to care any more. We have to see more taking part in our meetings to help us fight for better living conditions for farmers."

Thanks to the efforts of the members present at the OFA meeting, $3,300 was raised to send a tractor to residents of a South African village.

Fred Nurse, in his report of the work during the past year of the Resource Development Committee, paid tribute to Gordon Kidd for his participation in the federation's "battles with the OMB. He's literally fighting our battles for us," commented Mr. Nurse.

Among the special guests at the meeting were Allan Masson, chairman of Halton Region, and Julian Reed, MPP for Halton-Burlington.
