

Grads Day at GDHS

Remembering the 'good old days' reminiscing about some not so 'good old days' looking back fondly and often comically of teachers past, but mainly reuniting with old school chums, is the aim of Grads Day at the Georgetown District High School.

The graduates of 1975 from GDHS are invited to return to the "old fortress of learning" and share experiences of the working world, university and college life with each other and senior students of the school. Grads Day for all graduates is tomorrow, Thursday, Dec. 18 from 9 a.m. onward.
